Ask Liberation Of Indian Leaders

Editor, The Eccentric: A meeting of the Oakland County Branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom was held Sept. 23 at the home of the chairman, Mrs. John Gaffill, and the following resolutions were passed. These resolutions had also been passed at the September meeting of the Michigan Branch.

CITIZEN OF RESOLUTIONS (Because of lack of space, it was impossible to print the resolutions in full.) They called on the President for instructing American troops in India from taking any part in Indian internal affairs. They asked the President to offer his services as mediator, and they urged the President to advocate the release of imprisoned Indian leaders.

A.A.U.W. Book Sale Earns $330

Approximately $330 will have been cleared by the Birmingham A.A.U.W. for their annual book sale, held last week, when all money is turned in. Mrs. M. Roesch, general chairman, revealed that work. Funds raised by this sale go toward the support of the Saturday Club and university fellowships for women.

Stones Break Glass; Can't Get Insurance

L. C. Gwynne, 1921 estate man, wrote the City Commission Monday night, asking that the City lay blacktop in the space between the sidewalk and curb in front of the business property at 1220 South Woodford, owned by Mrs. Jesse B. Moody. Mr. Gwynne said the stones from the automobile had broken so many windows that insurance was no longer obtainable.

Infractions of Law Need Publicity

Editor, The Eccentric: On reading your recent remarks on the publishing of news of local court affairs, that he was ready to grant them visas to enter the United States instead of their homeland in the U. S. Government will receive them. That piece of wire or write the President asking that a plan be made immediately to rescue the "happy people from torture or death in the Nazi occupied states."

Gypsy Dancer Opens Fisher Town Hall

Carleen Amaya, flamenco dancer and her troupe of gypsy dancers and musicians, will open the Petron Town Hall season at the Fisher Theater, Wednesday morning, Oct. 14. This petite 20-year-old dancer, who electrified Broadway with her most sensational flamenco stepping in many a year, made her concert debut recently at Carnegie Hall, packing the theater and turning 2,000 away at the door.
