Enlistment Trend Increases Here

The imminence of drafting of 18-19 year-olds has brought an increase in inquiries at the Army recruiting office here, which since Tuesday has been situated in the Defense Service Center, 121 Pierce street, near Maple. The office was moved from 139 South Woodward.

The station will be open from 10 to 5 Monday through Friday and on Thursday evening from 6 to 9. It will be staffed with recruiting aides who are trained to answer questions concerning enlistment and take actual enlistments for air cadets, army air force specialists as well as general enlistment in the army signal corps, ordnance corps, WAAC and nurses corps.
