Food Fish Ease Meat Shortage

Quick frozen codfish is stored like codwood to be shipped out over North Carolina's old "Market Line," a railroad reopened for the duration so that fish could be kept out the year round to help ease the meat shortage.

Spent Shells Will Serve Again

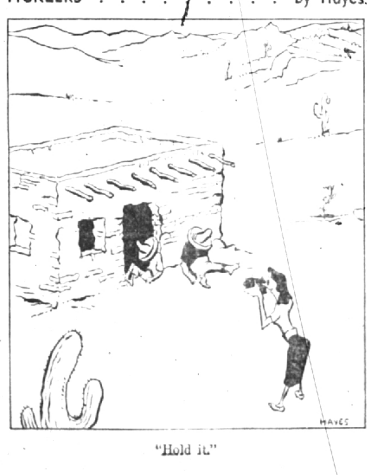

War materials of every kind are salvaged by the British in the deserts of North Africa. Spent shells are cleaned and sent to the base depot, where they will be melted down and used again in the war effort.

propositions, exclusive of amendments, in Michigan No. 1 relative to the calling of a State Constitutional Convention; no harm to come if this wins; No. 2 to give Wayne County Home Insurance, that ought to be approved; No. 3 concerns a State Milk Marketing Act, and, because I think the approval of this will improve the lot of humans and friendly cows, my vote will be "yes."

LIGHTS NEARLY PAID FOR
Receipts at the last home rule football game were $457. It was reported. Profits from the Royal Gas game, plus night game receipts, will enable the school to pay of the debt intended to install the new floodlights. Attendance is running far ahead of former games. The board discussed a new grandstand as a future undertaking, to be held for by gate receipts.

Harry Hopkins. Mechanic

No relation to the Washington, D. C. Hopkins, Staff Sergeant, Harry L. Hopkins of Waco, Tex., does not hit with a mechanic's wrench. He's with the Army Air Force at Randolph Field.

Says Who?
A psychologist reports that 70 per cent of everybody's dreams are unimportant. Sleeping, in short, is not much wicker than being awake.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Air Mail Packages Must Be Examined

No packages for air mail can be accepted unless they are first examined at the Post Office, Postmaster Joseph A. Byrne announced Wednesday. Few are sent in this manner, Byrne said, because the rate is six cents an ounce. The object is to guard against sabotage.

We Guess So!
The early settlers, remarks a lecturing historian, found an asylum in these shores, but it was a bit different, we guess, from the kind they might think they'd found, if they landed about now. Boston Herald.

YOUR COAL MAN... WILL KEEP YOU WARM!
If You Give Him a Chance...
1. REMEMBER; your coal man is beset with difficulties the same as any other business man... He is short of man-power, he has more demands for his services...
2. REMEMBER; to place your order far enough in advance so we can dispatch our orders. In so doing we can save tires, trucks and fuel for Uncle Sam...
3. Please do not ask us to deliver at a specified time. In these times we must have a little more leeway...
4. If you do not intend to be home when our delivery man comes please leave instructions with a neighbor or phone 2020... This will eliminate extra trips which we are not allowed to make. This practice will also ensure your receiving the coal in a clean, efficient manner...
5. If your coal needs are not sufficient to make a full load on our truck please phone us far enough in advance to allow us to deliver it when another such quantity is wanted in your neighborhood so we can deliver them together... One to five days in advance is required...
6. Our Uncle Sam has demanded us to reduce our mileage as a patriotic measure. We are glad to cooperate and we know you are too.
By all working together in a cooperative and patriotic way, there is no reason why we should not have coal heat in abundance for everyone...
