Mr. Ingram is to be field engineer in charge of maintenance of bridges and buildings on the main line Grand Trunk Railroad, between Chicago and Battle Creek.

Thompson-Skinner Rites Solemnized On Tuesday at St. Hugo of the Hills

The chapel out at St. Hugo of the Hills was the scene of a charming wedding at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Oct. 27, when Mary Louise Thompson and Ralph L. Skinner, Jr., repeated their nuptial vows. Mary Louise is the daughter of Mrs. Con Thompson, of Birmingham, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Skinner, of Detroit. The Rev. Fr. Daniel T. Whelan officiated at the services.

Mary Louise, who was born in marriage, by her brother, John, Thomas H. Wagner, of Birmingham, wore an afternoon frock of white tulle, made with a V-neckline and a jeweled trimmed yoke. A small brown velvet hat, brown accessories, and a corsage of white orchids completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Thomas H. Wagner, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a dress made similarly to Mary Louise, but of gray and blue, accented with a blue jewel yoke. Her blue hat was trimmed with beaver and she wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride's mother was dressed in brown and blue crepe, a blue hat, and a green corsage. Mrs. Skinner chose a dress of gray blue and a lavender orchid for the occasion.

Robert Skinner, of Detroit, was best man for his brother, and usher was William Mead, of Birmingham. Albert S. Pratt, Jr. of Detroit, following the ceremony, Mr. Louis Gossard, of Detroit, and Mrs. Deane, of Detroit, were hosts at a wedding breakfast at National Hills Country Club.

The bride was graduated from the Sacred Heart Academy at Kalamazoo, and Mr. Skinner graduated from Cranbrook and attended Cornell University.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Annabelle Hayes, Mrs. Bernard Bourke, and Mrs. Louise Hines, all of Marquette, Mich. and Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Wagner, of Muskegon.

Names Carved in Jack-O-Lanterns Reveal Daisley-Shealor Engagement

Instead of the usual jack-o-lantern faces, the names "Jack" and "Daisy" were carved into the pumpkins which adorned the mantel at the Robert H. Daisley home on Linden road last Tuesday evening. This it was that guests at an informal party learned of the engagement of Catherine Daisley, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Walter H. Shealor, son of the late Mrs. Harold Shealor of Greenwald, Mich.

No definite plans have been made as yet for the wedding, although the young couple plan to be married in the very near future, and in New York City. Miss Shealor was graduated from Pontiac University where she was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

A guest of the Daisleys for the past week, Capt. Shealor has now returned to Fort Meade, Ind.

Church Rites Unite Nancy Fisher and James S. O'Rourke

Nancy Ann Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Fisher, became the bride of James S. O'Rourke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. O'Rourke, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the St. James Episcopal Church. The young couple repeated their vows before an altar larded with ferns and clusters of white chrysanthemums.

For her wedding, Nancy chose an afternoon dress of light green crepe, fashioned with a draped skirt, V-neckline, and long sleeves. Her small, popular-style hat of matching material, her dress and shoes were finished with a corsage of lavender orchids. Bridegroom Willey, who came home from Central Lawrence College to his nuptial duties, wore a similar dress of cream, accented with a white furban, brown accessories, and a corsage of green orchids.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fisher wore a frock of gray crepe and a deep purple hat, gloves and stockings. Mrs. O'Rourke chose a gold colored wool suit with a fox collar, brown hat, and corsage of white orchids.

A wedding luncheon was served following the ceremony at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. White orchids, gardenias, and baby chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece of the long table around which guests were seated in the ball room.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of butters-green wool with a brown hat, and brown accessories topped by a brown fur hat. The young couple left for a short wedding trip before going to the West coast where Ensign O'Rourke will be stationed.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Davidson, Mrs. Bertina and Miss Helen Fisher, all of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold T. Trebble, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Harold J. Bond, of Middletown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Davison, of Saginaw; Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Davis, Jr., of Hollywood, Calif.; Mrs. Wilbur Crawford, and Mrs. William Davidson, both of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smart, of Pleasant Ridge.
