

Leafs Hope to Extend Streak to Three Games

The Maples will try to add another victory to their two-game winning streak when they clash with a supposedly weaker Ypsilanti team Friday night at eight at Ypsilanti.

So far this season, Ypsi had dropped five games in five starts due largely to the fact that they have only two returning lettermen.

Birmingham has shown much improvement in the last two games, beating Ecorse 18-0 and Ply-

Maples Win 12-0 To Avenge Defeat Suffered Last Year

Rain, snow, and sleet set the stage for an exhibition of power rampaging Birmingham eleven as they defeated Ypsilanti team 12-0 last Friday night at Pierce Field.

But Kellier and Balliet, Bob Garmann both scored on smashing plunges at the Rock line as the local boys avenged last year's bitter 22-9 defeat.

Committees Start For Variety Show

Baldwin's Variety Show committees began functioning this week, a publicity and costume committee being appointed to start work immediately.

The costume committee chairman is Dorothy Esery and members are Nanette Jensen, Billie MacDonald, Shirley Warner and Memorie Lipner.

The publicity for Doctor Rhythm will be handled by a committee headed by Bill Wyckoff, Howie Briestmeyer, Beverly Greer, Rosemary DeBauterion and Glenice Bender make up other members. Donna Polezynski, Audrey Durning and Joan Scudell will manage care of advertising in assemblies, and Don Leubler will manage blackboards, bulletin boards, and all novelty effects. The committee will be supervised by Miss Ruth Hull and Miss Vida McGiffin.

18 Charter Members In Varsity Club

Eighteen charter members of the newly-reorganized Varsity Club were on hand last Wednesday night at the Community House for a special meeting, the purpose of which was the ratifying of the new constitution drawn up by chairman Bob Murray. Harold Watts, Jack Steelman and Miss Vida B. McGiffin, parliamentary law adviser.

It was decided that all members present would be declared charter members and all new lettermen would be given a formal initiation before becoming active members.

Sports Showup

Although the long-awaited Royal Oak vs Birmingham cross country meet postponed due to inclement weather, will proceed a state championship for the protection of Coach Fred Eichel. The meet will be held at Ypsilanti this Saturday. Tryouts were held yesterday for the seven positions to be filled. Instead of the usual single state meet this year two will be held. Schools from the eastern half of the state will compete at Ypsilanti and from the western half at Kalamazoo. Coach, Roy E. Brice, says Birmingham's second state championship trophy in one year!

JONES AT KISKI

Al Jones, a star tackle for Birmingham last year, has been making progress at Kiski prep school, Sulzbarg, Pa., according to a letter received by Al's father from L. M. Clark, president of the school.

He has already established himself as a good athlete and is popular with his classmates. Al has been made an assistant to his housemaster.

Boys and Girls Meet Separately

The first trial of the combined boys and girls assembly will be held at Ypsilanti on Friday night. The boys will meet at 7:30 and the girls at 8:00. The trial assembly will be held in the auditorium and it is the first meeting of this kind sponsored by the city. Mrs. J. S. Hammond of Grosse Pointe Farms, head of the Civil Air Patrol in Detroit, will be the speaker. She will discuss admission requirements and the work now being done by the CAP. Part of the period will be devoted to the answering of questions by Mrs. Hammond, Rosemary DeBauterion, chairman, and Carolyn Kane has been in charge of preparing the program.

10TH GRADE ELECTS

Nominated from the floor, David Wancher was elected president of the 10B class. Other officers chosen were vice president, Tom Cookery, secretary, Ruth Harrell; and treasurer, Ralph Backus. The elections were held by ballot sent around to each home room.
