

Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces, and patients, are invited to send names of men who are joining the Navy as specialists who receive above-normal ratings because of their civilian training.

UP ONE GRADE
W. H. H. Ives, of 592 West Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ives, has been promoted to private first class in the Marine Corps, with which he is serving overseas in the Pacific. He enlisted March 9, 1942.

MORE ABOUT STOLPMAN
BLOOMINGTON, Ind.,—Lt. Albert Kenneth Stolpmann is now attached to the U. S. naval training school for enlisted aviators (WAVES) on the campus of Indiana University here.

POSTED AS DELINQUENT
The name of Jesse Dumas, who formerly lived on 18 1/2 mile road, Route 1, has been given to the U. S. District attorney as a delinquent for failure to supply change of address. His last known address was Eagle Pass, Texas.

OLDER MEN, TOO
Thirty-two of the men of Oakland County men volunteered for service with the U. S. Navy last week.

FLYING HOME
Although furloughs for Army Air Corps boys have been out for months, the alleged hard-boiled commanding officers know where the boys would like to fly. Their plans when opportunity knocks.
