Naturally all emphasis seems to be on the war effort these days, with people coming and going to and from Army camps and Naval stations at a great rate. This week the newly formed WAVES have caused some stir in Birmingham. Jeanne L'Hommedieu left Monday evening for Smith College where she will enter the WAVE Officer's Training School as a midshipman. Also leaving this week are four local girls as apprentice seamen, enlisted WAVES—these are Mary Ann Neff, Betty Miller, Doris Groves, and Winona H. Singers. Molly Carney reports on Saturday she has been promoted to the rank of Lt. in the WAVAC ranks. Capt. E. E. Hammond plans to leave next Wednesday for Miami, Fla., where he will become a part of the United States Army Air Force, and Colin John is leaving this Saturday morning for Lowry Field, Denver, Colo., where he will be an air cadet in the ground school, armament division, U. S. Army.

Mrs. F. E. Rothman is a going over to Ann Arbor today to a Red Cross meeting, from which she will go forthwith to Dayton, Ohio, where she is to spend a long week-end with her husband, Capt. Rothman. She will return on Tuesday. Lt. Perry Vaughan and his bride, of a few months, the former Ann Smith, spent a four-day tour with his parents in the West Coast where he will award further orders, and Mrs. Vaughan is remaining here with her father, Frederick P. Smith.

THREE NEW GRANDCHILDREN
Proud parents of the week are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Perry, of 601 Harmon avenue, whose young son, James Stanley was born on Sunday, Oct. 4. Mrs. Perry is the former Janet Pochon and the daughter of the parent's pride however, is more than equalled by baby's grandmother, Mrs. Stanley. Within the past six months she has thrice been a new grandmother! Besides the newborn, the arrival there is Larry, son of Tom Stolberg, and a granddaughter, Ann Louise, child of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy G. Vandenberg entertained their immediate neighbors—Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Christie and their niece Virginia M. Christie, on Saturday night, at the home of Mrs. William J. Gray, and the Frank Cousins, at a party the following Saturday night, so that they might get better acquainted before gas rationing actually appears, for when it does come they will be constant companions. First they had cocktails at the Vandebergs and then drove over to the Old Club for dinner.

MANY VISITORS REPORTED
Guests of the Angus D. McLays over the weekend were Mrs. McLays' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Per Wilkman—Mr. Wilkman, Consul General from Sweden to the Canadian Dominion and their children, Elizabeth, Per, Jr., and Christine. On Sunday afternoon many old friends dropped in at the McLays to chat with the visitors. The Wilkmans are now in Des Moines, Ia., visiting Mrs. Henry C. Wallace.

Popular guest this week is Mrs. Harold J. Thompson, who came up from Baltimore to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reaney, and her son and daughter-in-law, the George C. Thompsons. The Thompsons used to live here, over on Abbey road. They moved about two years ago to California, and this summer returned East to Roland Park, Baltimore. Mrs. Thompson reports that David is now an air cadet, attending ground school at Maxwell Field, Ala., and that Marjory is enrolled in Roland Jr. High School in Roland Park.

David Lannan, of Chicago, Ill., spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurance P. Smith, out at Fox Croft, before leaving for active maritime duty.

FOOTBALL CROWD
Among the many people attending the Michigan State-Michigan game Saturday were the Hugh Hemphills, Robert Atkinson, and Walter Anderson, in one party. The Arthur L. Genungs met their

Thomas-Lewellen Vows Repeated at St. James Church

Wearing a wedding gown of white brocade, Jane Thomas-Lewellen, the bride of Wendell G. Lewellen, Jr., Saturday evening at seven o'clock in the St. James Episcopal Church, the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated.

The bride and groom are the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lewellen are the parents of the bridegroom. Jane's gown was made with a full skirt ending in a long circular train, and she wore a finger-tip veil falling from a halo of Alencon lace. The bridal bouquet was of white eleanthus and gladioli, centered by a purple orchid.

The honor attendants, all three of whom were Jane's cousins, were dressed alike in dress of blue green brocade and an arrangement of pink feathers in their hair, each Cook, many of whom carried pink carnations and white roses, while Ruth Harriet Cook, bridesmaid, and Maurice Ann Evans, junior bridesmaid, carried bouquets of white and orchid baby mums and white roses.

Mrs. Thomas was gowned in gold and apricot lame and a gold evening hat trimmed with a gold veil. Her shoulder bouquet was of green orchids. Mrs. Lewellen wore powder blue crepe, a gold hat, and an orchid corsage.

Vernon Strobel, of New York, a classmate of the bridegroom at the Pennsylvania State University, was best man. Ushers were Raymond Benson, of Chicago, and Maurice Smith, David Thomas and Donald Lewellen of Birmingham.

A large reception was held out at Oakland Hills Country Club after the wedding ceremony. For traveling the bride wore a blue crepe dress with which she wore pearls, a fuchsia colored hat, and hair, Jean Cook, maid of honor completed her costume.

They will make their home in Greensdale, Ind., where the bridegroom attends DePauw University. He will graduate in June.

Oakland Hills Golfers Hold Annual Meeting At Club Tomorrow

Following white elephant day last Friday at Oakland Hills Country Club which officially closes the golf season, the ladies' committee, headed by Mrs. V. Brown, immediately made plans for the annual meeting to be held tomorrow, Friday, Oct. 9, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Jack Henderson, chairman of the meeting is making diligent attempts to make the program an attractive and outstanding one. A general get-together was held in meeting proceedings, followed by a luncheon, after which the meeting will get underway. As is customary, the 1943 chairman will be announced, prizes will be given to winners of the various events held through the year, and plans for the coming year will be presented and discussed.

Mrs. Shain's Foreign Relations Class To Start on 22nd Consecutive Year

Mrs. Charles J. Shain's foreign relations class will resume its meetings on Tuesday, Oct. 13, at 10 a.m. for the 22nd consecutive year. Sponsored jointly by the League of Women Voters and by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, the class will be held in the Community House and is free to everyone.

Of particular interest to members of men in service, and those interested in foreign affairs, will be moving pictures on foreign fronts. The Foreign Policy Association is furnishing 30-minute talking films of the United Nations in the present war. These movies will be spread throughout the course, and on the day that they are given, the remaining 30 minutes of the class will be given over to a discussion of the particular country in question. These films are being made available so that families at home may better understand problems of the fighting front.

Presbyterian Men To Meet October 15

The Presbyterian Men's Club will hold its first meeting of the Fall season next Thursday evening, Oct. 15, when Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham Schools, will be the guest speaker. The meeting will begin with a dinner at 7 p.m.
