Mrs. Vaughan Now State OES Officer

Nancy Fisher and Jim O'Rourke have set Friday, Oct. 23, as the date for their wedding—just two days after the prospective bridegroom is to receive his commission as an ensign from the Navy school at Columbia University. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Fisher of Kennebec avenue, and Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. O'Rourke of Pilgrim road.

The Three Flags Chapter, D.A.R., sponsored a benefit bridge-luncheon at the home of Mrs. Paul S. Bigby on Friday, Oct. 2. The funds raised are to be used in buying a mobile unit for the Red Cross Blood Bank.

Elizabeth Steiler, daughter of Fred Steiler, of Berkeley, and Harold Roger Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jones, of Pierce street, repeated their nuptial vows Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed in the First Baptist Church, Birmingham, by the Rev. J. O. Nelson.

"America is a Tune" is the title of the talk, to be illustrated with colored slides, that Mrs. Betty Roberts will make before Piety Hill Chapter, D.A.R., next Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 13. The meeting, which will start with a dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock, will be held at the home of Mrs. Steele R. Sellers, 960 Arlington drive.

The Michigan Branch of the Women's International League for Peace is sponsoring a Mexican Luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 10, at 12:30 o'clock in the home of the Oakland County chairman, Mrs. John Garff, 548 Southfield, Oakland County chairman.

The first of a series of Junior Assemblies, under the direction of Mrs. Basil Brown, will be held this Friday evening, Oct. 9, at 8:30 o'clock in the Community House. Sponsors will be Mrs. Frank Newell and Mrs. W. C. Sproull.

Mrs. Perry Vaughan, past matron of the Birmingham Order of the Eastern Star, was one of five women chosen from throughout the state, to serve as Grand Electa for the state Eastern Star organization. Installation ceremonies will take place next week at the 75th annual session of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of the Eastern Star, which will be held in Grand Rapids on Oct. 13, 14, and 15.

The ceremony is to take place at one o'clock in the afternoon at the St. James Episcopal Church with the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating. Bobette Wiley will be Nancy's only attendant and William O'Rourke of Chicago is to be best man for his brother, Ushers will be George Flynn and Don Moses.

Following the ceremony there will be an informal reception for members of the immediate families, after which the young couple expect to leave for the West Coast. Mrs. O'Rourke is planning a miscellaneous show for her future daughter-in-law next Wednesday afternoon out at Seven Gables.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar decorated pink, yellow, and white baby mums and burning tapers. Mrs. J. O. Nelson played the wedding music.

Very appropriate at this time also is the observance of the Golden Anniversary of the Pledge to the Flag—known as Columbus Day. As it is a nation wide request that all schools and organizations observe this anniversary, Mrs. Harold R. Chapel, Piety Hill chairman of the correct use of the flag, will read a paper before the members at this topic.

In October, 1892, the national public school celebration of Columbus Day, the pledge to the flag was first given by 12 million school children in almost every school house in the nation.

Miss Florence Brooks of Brown City will speak on "Mexican Migratory Worker." Miss Brooks and her brother are best sugar operators and are interested in all professional plans to help the Mexican workers.

Also attending the convention will be Mrs. Ira Brownell, grand matron of the local chapter. Other members plan to go over for one day sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillingham, of Ann street, are making known the marriage of their son Sgt. Wallace R. Gillingham to Marie A. Briggs, daughter of William Briggs of Unionville, Mich. The wedding ceremony took place in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church at Muskegon, Okla., on Sept. 26, with the Dr. W. W. Criswell officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Eaker were the attending couple. The bride wore a floor length gown of white velvety and a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses tied with long white streamers. Mrs. Eaker wore a floor length gown of pink and black and her flowers were pink roses.

Mr. Robert Manning was matron of honor for her sister and wore a gown of two shades of soft green, fashioned with a fitted bodice, and a full skirt gathered at the hips. She also carried a colonial bouquet of rust and orange baby mums. Another sister, Miss Donna Steiler, and Adeline Alger, bridesmaids, were gowned similarly to the honor attendant but in peach-colored dresses. They also carried colonial bouquets of rust and orange mums. Sally Steiler, dressed in a light green frock, was flower girl. Mrs. Jones wore a dress of rose silk and a corsage of Gardenias for her sister's wedding.

Harold G. Wangberg was best man, and ushers were John Porter and Lynn Schwallie. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlors of the church, after which the young couple left for a short wedding trip through Northern Michigan. They are making their home in Berkeley.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, will have a general meeting at the church next Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 14. Luncheon will be served at 1:15 o'clock by the Hattie Evans group and tickets may be obtained from any of the group leaders.

Following the luncheon Mrs. W. L. Peterson will hold a discussion on "Working With Girls." Mrs. C. C. Becker is to be in charge of devotions.

Students government has gotten off to a good start with Margi Booth as president of Student Council, Jessica Waldron as vice-president, and Mary McKinstry as secretary. Class representatives include Peggy Codd, Mary Schlosser, Pat Newhall, Judy Loud, Elaine Newhall, and Nancy Allen.

Members of the Birmingham Musicals will meet this afternoon in the Community House at 2 o'clock to hear piano selections by Ruth Lou Laske and a program of folk music to be sung by Mrs. Lou Chapman with verbal annotations by Edith Kheps Titton.

KINGSWOOD KLIPPINGS This week we have elected most of the class officers necessary to carry on the year's work. Our class presidents are as follows: seniors, Lindsay Ray; juniors, Sara Weeks; 10th grade, Susan Brew; 9th grade, Ann Gehrke; 8th grade, Beverly Whiting; 7th grade, Ann Kamper.

Our second Saturday night was hosted up by a fine movie, "Suspicion," shown at the Cranbrook gym for both the schools, followed by a sweater dance for those who could not attend. It meant nearly every one.

Meanwhile we are working hard at our 312, in preparation for our first game. Kitty Kingswood
