TECHNICIAN GRADUATES
SCOTT FIELD, Ill.—Forty soldiers from Michigan are included in the latest class of radio operators and mechanics to be graduated Saturday, it was announced today by Col. Wolcott P. Hayes, commanding the parent radio school of the Army AIAF Forces Technical Training command.

Immediately following graduation the Michigan men will be transferred to various parts of the country, some to continue training at a advanced operational schools, and others to take up aerial gunnery in addition to their radio duties. All of them, Col. Hayes said, are now qualified to become radio mechanics at ground stations throughout the service or to radio operators in bombing planes wherever their services are required.

Among the group was Pvt. George J. Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Frank, 439 Frank street.

WARTIME HINTS

for a lady who wants to save electricity and appliances!

SAVING ELECTRICITY A cardinal rule today is this: "Use as much electricity as you need, but don't waste it." There are many practical ways of saving electricity in your home—on your cooking, lighting, heating, and other uses of your helpful electrical servants. It simply means the most economical way to use them, with greatest efficiency. A few of these suggestions are listed below.

YOUR HOME LIGHTING
Dust shades light-absorbing lamp shades. Use one that fits snugly over the lamp. This is pure waste. Keep lamps and fixtures clean. Wipe bulbs and reflector bowls frequently. Dust shades inside and out. Use the right-size bulbs in your lamps and fixtures, and select shades with a white lining.

ELECTRIC COOKING Use the built-in cookers of your electric range. Plan your meals so that you can cook in the oven at about the same time. Finish your cooking on "low" or "stove" heat whenever possible. Use flat-bottomed utensils instead of cooking with a cover. Cook with little water, and cover utensils with a tight lid.

SMALL APPLIANCES
Don't lark cord from socket when finished with use. Disconnect by grasping plug. Don't clean wires of heating element (toaster, grill, etc.) with fork or sharp tool. Never dip appliances in water. Let appliance cool before storing away. Always clean grids on waffle iron after use. Don't let electric iron overheat.

YOUR REFRIGERATOR Overload your refrigerator. Unless the motor is hermetically sealed, have it billed and inspected regularly. Be sure there is adequate air circulation all around the refrigerator. Defrost regularly. (Never use a knife or sharp tool for defrosting.) Clean inside of refrigerator with lukewarm water and mild soap.

YOUR ELECTRIC WASHER
Drain washer and rinse tub thoroughly after each washing. Remove suds and rinse. Wipe dry with a soft cloth. Don't force thick, bulky objects through your washer—hard objects like belt buckles, etc. Release pressure on rolls when not in use, and dry rollers thoroughly. Don't overload your washer.

Instructor

turning to active duty in July, 1941. He was first fourth zone contracting quartermaster, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga. but in December he was transferred to Washington.

JOIN THE ARMY
The Detroit recruiting and induction district of the Army announced that two Birmingham men enlisted last week, and thus got a chance to express their preference for the Army.

Stanley and Lee Benn, Jr., of 1348 Humphrey.

OFFICIAL NOTICE GIVEN
Official notice of the following enlistments and commissions has been received by the following men:

Winston Howard Cook, 1040 East Maple, Navy V-7 (deferred service).

William Edward Bracker, 6701 Colby Lane, Army enlisted reserve.

Glenn Allen Watson, 1207 Bird, Coast Guard.

Carl K. Vagstad, 1446 East Maple, Army enlisted reserve.

Robert L. Fetterly, Square Lake road, Rochester, Navy.

Francis K. O'Toole, 261 Clifton road, Air Force enlisted reserve.

He is a member of the crew of a 64-foot sloop.

This division of the Coast Guard is an efficient one for submarine patrol because, although the boats have auxiliary motors, they are not used except for emergency. Listening devices have been installed and the operation is, therefore, quite efficient. This is an interesting and exciting branch of the service.

ANOTHER TO TEXAS
First Lt. Robert M. Stanger, formerly of Birmingham, has been transferred to the Normandy ordnance motor base, San Antonio, Texas. He was formerly employed at General Motors Truck.

GO TO ST. LOUIS

UNRECONSTRUCTED
Capt. Harvey Luce, former vice president of the MacManis, John & Adams advertising agency, and now stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va., reports the following letter received from his unconstructed Confederate grandfathers:

"I am proud that you are in your country's fighting forces. Things are looking good here in Atlanta. We have a big airbase here. I hear we have a lot of bases in the South. They're producing a lot of steel in Birmingham, ships in New Orleans and planes in Texas.

In fact, it looks to me as though when you get through being in the service, you'll be helping beat the tar out of the damned Yankees.

Grandpa"

PROMOTED A GRADE
Ensign Fred W. Owen, nephew of Dr. H. F. Owen, of Fox & Hounds Inn, Bloomfield Hills, was recently promoted from the rank of sergeant to staff sergeant. He is assigned to the photo department as a photographer, having had his own studio in Detroit. He enlisted in the Air Force a year ago.

EXAMINES SAILORS
Lt. A. Kenneth Stulpman, former Birmingham physician, is now leaving away at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, but lives with Mrs. Stulpman at Apt. 2-C, 530 Sheridan road, Evanston. He commutes daily by train.

HOME ON LEAVE

He is now at home, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Denyes, 283 Merrill, on a seven-day leave, and after his return will be assigned to duty.

Ted Johnstone, 45 North Woodward, who is in the same service, is also home on leave.

COMPLETING TRAINING
Ensign Hugh W. Johnston, U.S.N.R., for eight years a member of the production department of Brooks, Smith, French & York, Inc., Detroit and New York advertising agency, is completing his training on the East Coast for active sea duty. Johnston was commissioned Aug. 25, following his graduation at Great Lakes as honor man of his class.

He has been a resident of Oakland county for 18 years and is the son of Mrs. Cora E. Johnston, of Birmingham, and Franklyn, of Bloomfield Township.

Ask Hunters Save Used Shell Casings

The half million small game and deer hunters invading Michigan's woods and fields this fall are asked by the Department of Conservation to cooperate with the Michigan Salvage Committee by saving all their shotgun and rifle shell casings.

The Michigan Retail Hardware Dealers' association has been organized in the drive, and all hardware stores in the state will serve as collection centers. They will cooperate with the various county salvage committees.

High, Low and Unlimited At the moment, the ceiling situation is mixed. Apparently we are to have a low one on sugar, a high one on wheat, and none at all on the national debt—New York.
