Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces, and parents, are invited to send us news of the boys' whereabouts and activities. Service men, scattered about the country, are hungry for news of their friends. Even the address of a newly-placed inducted man is of interest.

GO TO CUSTER

Forty men left this week for Fort Custer (their names were all listed in last week's Eccentric). Thirty-nine went Monday and one man, Homer B. Briggs, who was delayed at the induction center in Detroit, went Tuesday. Charles F. Lawler, Jr., was acting corporal in charge, Monday.

The increasing tempo of war was manifest in the growing emotional note at the farewells. Three women were nearly overcome with hysteria.

A group of young men was present to cheer the departure of "Tiny" Forester, former Baldwin High football store and manager this year at Stoneycroft golf course.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Sgt. David Gafill is spending a seven-day furlough in Birmingham with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gafill, of Hill Top lane. Sgt. Gafill, who has been in the Army about 4½ months, is stationed at the Savanna Ordnance Depot Proving Grounds, Savanna, Ill., and is attending a training school for non-commissioned men there. Before his induction into the Army, Sgt. Gafill was a reporter for the Flint Journal.

LETTER FROM INDIA

Editor, The Eccentric:

I've read lots of items in The Eccentric about people receiving and enjoying it away from home. They aren't alone. Local Board No. 7 has added a few more men to your list: Bob Andrews, Bob Harrington and myself.

Most of all we're enjoying the news of those in the service. Gives us an idea of what's happened to all the other victims of Dear Ole No. 7.

But most of all we feel a little proud that we are receiving that paper from a greater distance than all the others. So, too, is it a feather in your respective bonnets. So dig out the old type and heavy ink and run yourself a little space. We'll endorse it over here.

HOME

Bill Robertson, yeoman second class, U. S. Navy, is home on 10 days' leave from his station at Duluth, Minn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, 1312 Webster.

TWO IN 25 YEARS

Twenty-five years ago in September, Mrs. Emily Wade bade goodbye to her young husband, who was leaving for Fort Custer, which he helped build. This week, her son, James, Jr., left for Custer, having enlisted in the Signal Corps. After graduation from Baldwin in 1941, Jim, Jr., worked for the telephone company and thus will be useful in the Signal Corps.

City Will Buy Two More Sirens

Two additional air raid sirens, bringing the City's total to five, were authorized by the City Commission to cover "blind" spots in the northeast and southwest sections. They will be placed at Oxford and Mohegan and Latham and Northlawn. Cost will be about $550, plus $6 a month for control circuits rented from the telephone company. Commissioner Ralph L. Powell voted against the measure. Asked for his reason by The Eccentric, he declared he thought the price was too high, and that he believed that present equipment has worked fairly well so far and would suffice.

Tuesday Supper Club To Resume Meetings

The Tuesday Supper Club—called 'Tuesday Club' because originally the club met only on that night—will resume their meetings, starting on Friday, Oct. 16, at the St. James Episcopal Church as usual. Present plans have it that the club will entertain a few soldiers at each of its dinners throughout the year.

Making arrangements for the first party are Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rathbone, and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Martin, II.

Cyclist Hit But Escapes Unhurt

While driving east on West Maple, near St. James church, Monday, Mrs. Alice E. Campbell, 839 Randall court, collided with a cyclist, Charles Davis, who rode into the side of her car. She took him home and was assured by the boy's mother that he was unhurt. In the turmoil, Mrs. Campbell did not remember the youth's address.

UNPATRIOTIC

"Tin can preparation is going to take a big jump in Birmingham when people sense the stigma of placing at the curb a box of cans which are NOT rinsed, delabeled, both ends cut and turned in, and flattened—and kept dry in a separate box for collection the last week of the month."—Birmingham Salvage Committee.

Recipes for Your Books, Cooks!

Tomato Crusts

Toast as many slices of bread as you need. Slice tomatoes 1-2 inch thick. Lay slice of tomato on the untoasted side of the bread and cut around them with a biscuit cutter, so that the toast round will just fit the tomato slice. Dot with butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and a little sugar. Put under the broiler just before time to serve. Serve with broiled lamb, mutton chops or calves' liver.

Ground Liver Patties

Pour boiling salted water over beef or calves' liver and let it simmer just a few minutes. Put the liver through the food chopper. Season with salt and pepper and a little onion juice. Moisten with some of the water in which the liver was simmered and shape into patties. Wrap slice of partially cooked bacon around patties and shower with toothpicks. Broil under low flame until bacon is crisp.

Ham Baked With Fruit

Use a good thick center slice of ham. Place in an oblong baking dish and cover with one medium size can of pineapple, peaches or apricots. Bake in an oven 350 degrees for 1 hour.

Deviled Swiss Steak

Mix 1 tablespoon of dry mustard with 1-2 cup flour. Pound into 1 1-2 pounds of 1 inch steak. Season with salt and pepper. Brown on both sides in a little fat. Place on a small roaster, pour over 1 cup sliced onions, 1 carrot, diced, 1 1-2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce and 1 tablespoon brown sugar. Cover. Bake in an oven 325 degrees about 1 1-2 hours.

Baked Lamb Chops

6 lamb chops, cut 1 inch thick.
1 cup sliced onions.
3 tablespoons shortening.
3 cups sliced potatoes.
1-2 cups sliced cucumbers.
2 teaspoons salt.
2 cups canned tomatoes.
1-2 teaspoon pepper.

Saute the lamb chops on both sides and when brown, place in bottom of a greased baking pan. Pour the drippings over the chops. Saute the onions in the shortening until soft and mix them with the cucumbers and potatoes. Season with salt and pepper. Cover the lamb chops with the vegetables and pour the tomatoes over them. Cover and bake 2 hours in an oven 400 degrees.

Broiled Fillets of Beef

Have slices cut from fillets 2-3 inch thick. Broil 4 or 5 minutes. Serve with parsley butter.

Parsley Butter

1-4 cup butter.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
Pepper.
1-2 tablespoon chopped parsley.
3-4 tablespoon lemon juice.

Work butter until creamy, add salt, pepper and parsley. Add lemon juice very slowly.

Veal Cutlets

1 1-2 lbs. veal cutlets cut thick
1 small egg.
Bread crumbs.
Seasoning.

The meat may be cut into pieces or served whole. Season with salt and pepper, dip each piece into well-beaten eggs, drain and coat with bread crumbs. Shake off all loose crumbs. Melt and heat a little fat in frying pan and cook the meat golden brown.
