Methodist Women's Groups to Meet in Members' Homes on Wednesday

Starting out the fall season, the women's groups of the First Methodist Church will get together at meetings in various members' homes this coming Wednesday, Sept. 23. One group, being organized especially for young women who are working and young mothers who cannot attend day-time meetings, will be held at the home of the group's leader, Mrs. Nellie Allen, 436 Park street.

Alpha Chi Omega Holds Annual Tea

Alpha Chi Omega was hostess at the annual tea for girls going away to college from the Birmingham, Pontiac and Royal Oak areas on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas H. Adams. A large attendance this year indicates that parents are sending their girls to college in spite of the war. At least parents in this area still believe that education—an old American custom—is the most valuable way to prepare their children either to fight the war or direct the peace.

Planned Parenthood Committee Board Meets to Discuss Raising of Funds

According to Mrs. W. W. Williams, of Wing Lake, president of the Southern Oakland County Committee of Planned Parenthood, the Michigan League of Planned Parenthood has adopted a new policy of fund raising so that appeals from local committees will be coordinated throughout the state. The board of directors of the local committee, which is a branch of the state league, met yesterday afternoon to discuss plans for their forthcoming fund-raising campaign.
