

Junior League Making Plans for Semi-Annual Bundle Tea

Doris Otter Named General Chairman Of Oct. 16 Affair

Doris Otter, chairman of the semi-annual bundle tea given by the Junior League in support of its regular project, the Thrift Shop, has announced that the tea is to take place on Wednesday, Oct. 14 at the Community House. This tea is open to anyone, the only admission requirement being a bundle of clothing or household articles that may be used in the Thrift Shop.

Attractive door prizes, chosen from the Junior League Shop will also be offered at the tea. The Thrift Shop itself will open a week or so prior to the tea, on Oct. 6; this will make its fifth annual count, and its second year as a semi-annual event. Junior League members from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills will meet for their annual luncheon on Wednesday, Oct. 7, at the home of Mrs. Carleton Hughes. In keeping with the theme, members will dispense with the usual luncheon, and each will bring her own sandwiches.

Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman is now chairman of the Birmingham Bloomfield Hills group and Mrs. Carleton Hughes is volunteer chairman. To Mrs. Washburn Wright falls the job of general chairman of the Thrift Shop, assisting her and serving on the board are Mrs. John MacManus, vice chairman, Mrs. Donald Nimmo, secretary, Mrs. Everett Fisher and Mrs. Russell Siderin, in charge of donations, Mrs. Ralph Palk, Jr. and Mrs. Ernest Kern, marking; Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. Clement A. Petros, personnel; and Mrs. J. M. Blatchford, publicity. Mrs. Martin P. Vorster and Mrs. John Huntington are chairman of the board at large.
