Village Variety

As always, for the opening fall meeting of St. Dunstans' Guild, Romayne Thompson is to be hostess to the group at an annual picnic supper at her home "Kennoways," tomorrow night. Assisting Miss Thompson will be her mother, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, and this year her new sister-in-law, Mrs. Otis C. Thompson. Some 50 to 75 members will have a wonderful time, cooking their own hamburgers, etc. David Walker Lee is chairman of the evening and assisting him are Henry Whiting, president of the Guild, and Mr. and Mrs. John Knecht. Members of the new boards are Mr. Whiting, Fritz Hyde, Templin Macklider, Bruce B. VanDusen, and Mrs. Frederick Booth.

FAREWELL PARTIES

Parties put together in a hurry for the Glendon T. Gerlachs, who left Monday for San Marino, Calif., where they are to live, include a small dinner party by the David Walker Lees on Saturday night, a luncheon given for them on Sunday by Ensign Carl Higbie, Jr., at his parents' home, and a cocktail party that afternoon at which Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hyde were hosts.

People just can't seem to stay away from Birmingham, or, we should say Wing Lake in this case, for the Herbert A. Carlbergs who used to live out there are back spending a week in these parts. On Sunday night the Walter P. Skinners gave a buffet supper for Mr. and Mrs. Carlberg, then on Tuesday the Elwood B. Oatmans, the William Grahams, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mott, Jr., entertained at a large cocktail party at the Oatman's home, after which the group went on to Orchard Lake Country Club for a subscription dinner. This Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams, out at Wing Lake, are having the visitors as their guests and have asked the Edward A. Proctors, Kenneth D. McGregors, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones B. Shannon in for dinner. Later they will take in the President's Dance at Orchard Lake.

TRIP TO MEXICO

The Clarence F. Kramers, of Bradway boulevard, are pretty much excited this week, and you really can't blame them. On Sunday they are leaving by plane for Mexico, where they will spend a month between Mexico City and Apaculpo, which is in the very southernmost part of Mexico on the Pacific coast.

A barrage of parties is going on these days for Lt. j. g. Paul B. Hoffman—Lt. Hoffman reports at the Boston Navy Yard for training for active sea duty just a week from Monday, Oct. 4. The Guy C. Smiths gave a dinner for him Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Glancy are having a cocktail party in their Grosse Pointe home for the Hoffmans this afternoon. For Saturday night the E. J. Andersons have planned a dinner, as have the George Hefferans, of Grosse Pointe, for next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whirl will be hosts at a dinner on Friday, and the last of the parties, a dinner, will be given, come Saturday, by Mr. and Mrs. Washburne Wright and Mrs. D. Williams.

STILL THEY TRAVEL

Despite the fable that brisk fall weather arouses an urge to seek one's own fireside and settle down, we still hear rumors of vacationing. Lorraine Stanley left Monday evening for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend a couple of weeks as guest of her father, Lt. Col. L. L. Stanley. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dant are leaving this Saturday for a three-week stay on the West coast. They plan to visit friends in Seattle and Vancouver, Wash., and in Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Fred Marvin left last Friday for Hyde Park, N. Y., where she will visit former friends and relatives. Mrs. Marvin grew up near Hyde Park and as a child knew President Roosevelt well. While East she will sing with the choir at the famous St. James, or "Old Stone" Church, as it's known—the church where the president worships whenever he is at Hyde Park.

Surprise guests of the Robert Atkinsons on Sunday were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lorenzen, whom everyone had thought nicely settled in San Francisco. The Lorenzens were in Birmingham until today, and now are trevelling South where Mr. Lorenzon will join the armed forces.

Noticed the other day that Mrs. Harry Cooley is getting nicely settled in her new dwelling at the Southfield Apartments—she is just back from six months in Florida, you may remember . . . Guest for a fortnight of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Pretz out at Wing Lake, is Virginia C. Reilly, of St. Louis, Mo., and New York City . . .

Flo Plaven, of Santa Ana, Calif., who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, the Franklin Robbins in Bloomfield Hills, left for home on Tuesday, and her cousin, Ensign Don Mead, U.S.N.R., who also had been with the Robbins for a week, left for Washington, D. C., on Monday.

In the very young department, comes the birthday party that Mollie Martin, three-year-old daughter of the William L. Martins, had at her home yesterday afternoon.

Richardson-Shaw Vows Exchanged

Maxine Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, of Haynes avenue, and Warren J. Shaw, of Royal Oak, repeated their nuptial vows Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. O. Nelson read the services in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. Warren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shaw, of Royal Oak.

For her wedding, Maxine chose a wine velveteen suit, trimmed with a white dicky, wore white gloves, wine hat and shoes. Her corsage was of white gardenias. The bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Shaw, acted as attendants for the young people.

Following the ceremony the 26 wedding guests, relatives of the bride and bridegroom, enjoyed a wedding dinner at the Normandy Inn. They left on a short honeymoon in Northern Michigan, after which they are to make their home temporarily with the Shaws in Royal Oak. Maxine is a graduate of Baldwin High School and Warren was graduated from Royal Oak High School.

L. Colberts Feted Before Departure

The Lester L. Colberts, of Puritan road, are having a hard time finding any time to work at moving these days, the parties given for them being so many. They plan to leave on Sept. 30, for Hinsdale, Ill., where Mr. Colbert is to be operating manager of the new Dodge plane plant there. Their new address will be 328 East Eighth street, Hinsdale.

Mrs. Walter Slagel entertained for Mrs. Colbert at a luncheon at Orchard Lake Country Club on Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Robert M. Halstead gave another luncheon on Wednesday in her home. On Friday afternoon Mrs. David G. Nethercott and Mrs. Richard L. Campbell will be co-hostesses at a luncheon out at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Gilmore, of Pleasant Ridge, have planned a dinner and theatre party for Mr. and Mrs. Colbert on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Laylands are taking a party of guests to the Orchard Lake Country Club dinner and dance on Saturday evening, and on Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby are honoring the departees at a buffet supper.

MRS. H. McHUGH and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Porter, of Daines street, have just returned from a visit at Camp Forrest, Tenn., where Pvt. Hugh McHugh is stationed in the 80th Division of the Field Artillery.

Too Smart

The captain was examining youths for promotion. Stepping up to one bright young man he asked, "What must an officer be before he can have a full naval burial?"

Young man—"Dead, sir."
