The Essence of Dreams Lamps

Autobiography of An Attitude

GEORGE JEAN NATHAN

"One of the most beautful of all things is a beautiful lamp.

Nothing/in this world, save it be music, can so soothe and set adream the socialism this world, save it be music, can so soothe and set adream the mood of mortal man. The past and all the present and some of the future are encompassed in its soft persuasive glow. It is the symbol of love, of home, of wistful vagrant fancy, of all the hopes and despairs of one's life on earth. God made the sun, the moon and stars, but man, this child, out of necessity, made for himself the lamp light as a beacon and a haven for the innermost secrets of his heart of licents."
