Phyllis J. Brown, F. Grosvenor, Jr., Wed in St. Louis

The Normandy Presbyterian Church of St. Louis, Mo., was the setting last Saturday evening for the 7 o'clock wedding of Phyllis J. Brown and F. Grosvenor, Jr.

The Rev. Herman G. Henser officiated, and Birmingham friends made up the wedding party.

The bride, given in marriage by Robert Hafner, of Wing Lake, was lovely in a long gown with a full lace bodice and bouffant net skirt. The dress was fashioned along very simple lines, with a sweetheart neckline and bracelet length sleeves trimmed with white ruching. Her finger tin veil fell from a Juliet cap fluted with white ruching. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Phyllis was attended by Ruth Randolph and Nancy Juhl. Phyllis wore a gown of fuchsia crepe styled with heart-shaped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore white gladioli with a fuchsia tint in her hair and carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

Nancy wore a crepe gown in a shade of aqua fashioned along the same lines as Ruth's, with short gathered sleeves. She wore peach gladioli in her hair and carried a matching bouquet.

Aviation Cadet Byron Coons acted as best man and Cadet A. Fletcher, Plant, Jr., also of Birmingham, acted as ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held in the Pine Room of the Coronado Hotel.

Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Brown, of Bloomfield Hills, and Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Grosvenor of Pierce street.

Mrs. Grosvenor will remain with her husband for a fortnight.

Staufer-Fox Date For Wedding Told At Tea Tuesday

Harriet Staufer set the date for her wedding to Lt. (jg.) Ralph M. Fox, as Sept. 11, at a tea in her home on Suffield, Tuesday afternoon.

The announcement was cleverly portrayed by the centerpiece which was a blue voile "pocoon" which were set about various nautical craft. The big boat's main flag had the date "Sept. 11" on it and the small sail had "Harriet and Ralph" on it. Because Harriet's fiancé is a Navy lieutenant the ocean was trimmed with two red bands, depicting Ralph's rank. A red, white, and blue theme carried out in bouquets of gladioli furnished the patriotic scheme. A picture of Ralph and Harriet was in the picture.

Mrs. William B. Plate, Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham, Mrs. Arthur Hugg, of Pleasant Ridge, and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, peared.

Mrs. George D. Nichols, Mrs. Benjamin H. Dewey, and Mrs. John Burton of Clyde, O., were among the out-of-town guests.
