GIRL SCOUTS

By CAROLYN McLEESSE

Greetings
Best wishes for a year in which to accomplish more in carrying out your Girl Scout Promise. Remember! "On my honor I will try: To do my duty to God and my country, to help other people at all times, to obey the Girl Scout laws."

Troop News
Troop 4: These scouts had their Christmas party on Tuesday, Dec. 21, in the gym of Quanton school. Mrs. Ralph Scheel did a splendid job in writing The Bird's Christmas Carol in play form which she directed for the girls to present at this party.

Mary Grindley took the part of Mrs. Bird. The boys in the Bird family were portrayed by Marilee Kleinert, Margaret Ireland and Mary Doyle. Mary Kelley was Carol Bird whose nurse was Mary Drake. Nan Mosby was Mrs. Ruggins. The children were Elaine Packard, Carley Scott, Marilyn Scheel, Sally Allen, Nancy Walton, Mary Alice Robertson, Nancy Howell, Roberta Connor and the baby was Priscilla Martz.

Jane Mallory was the announcer and other characters were Anne Mock as Uncle Jack and Barbara Stauffer as the Bird's maid. Following the play 24 of the girls who were working on their hostess badge served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Willis Mallory was in charge of table decorations and the food.

Mrs. Otto Winter, leader of this troop, adds this interesting comment to her report: "We had a nice time of mothers and one father, but with a troop of 52 it didn't seem enough. We also had an unneeded balcony boys, who were very quiet, believe it or not, but I think the smell of cookies got them over everything else."

Troop 7: On Tuesday, Dec. 21, this troop had their Christmas party in the Girl Scout room at the Community House. Nine mothers and one father attended and at the investiture service, which was part of the program, Mrs. M. Reusch and Mrs. Prentiss Smith were invested along with Eunice Groves, Avis Murphy and Mary Lou Klier. These mothers have been helping the leader, Mrs. C. H. A. Dawson, this fall.

Hostess: "Did you have enough to eat?"
Small Boy: "Yes ma'am. Didn't you see my mother look at me?"
