Jan. Grads May Enter M. S. C. on February 1

Michigan high school seniors graduating in January, 1944, may enter Michigan State College on February 1. R. S. Linton, college registrar, announces. Applications should be sent to him now, stated Professor Linton, giving the record through the first semester of the senior year. Final semester grades may be brought to the campus by the student on February 1, or mailed two weeks later by the high school principal. In the latter case the student will be admitted, pending the receipt of final grades.

Women in Service

Pfc. Leah E. Hunt

Pfc. Leah E. Hunt, daughter of Mr. Lee J. Mohr, 236 West Lincoln, arrived home last Thursday for a furlough from her post at the Marine Air Corps Base, Cherry Pointe, N. C.

Pfc. Hunt enlisted in the Women's Marines last August. She was sent to the Marine Corps School for Women in the Marines on July 13. This is her first home since her enlistment. On Friday, Dec. 3, Mrs. Mohr held open house for her daughter, between the hours of two to four and to receive her. She is now resuming her duties at Cherry Pointe.

Women Voters Will Hear Subsidy Debate

The morning session of the League of Women Voters' 11th meeting, Monday, Dec. 13, the timely question of food subsidies is to be debated. Charles Shain will set forth the arguments against subsidies, and Mrs. John Ormond the opposite view.

The re-opening of the Barmen swimming pool is a subject which has aroused considerable interest throughout Birmingham. In order to clarify the problem, Mrs. Peter Loomis, chairman of the Education Committee will open the program with a brief presentation of the facts involved.

Following this, Mrs. Harlan Rowe, of the Foreign Policy Committee, will speak on a matter which, though of vital interest, has not held a conspicuous place in the news: The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Conference at Atlantic City; its trials, tribulations, and successes.

At 2 o'clock, Mrs. Alfred McKeown, chairman of the Government and Labor Committee, Mrs. Elton Bemis, and Mrs. Herbert Royall are to picture the background of the labor movement in this country. This is by way of preparation for the program scheduled for the January meeting, when the membership is looking forward to the acquisition of the labor hearing two speakers of authority on the subject of labor, Frank Rising and Victor Reuther.

League of Women Voters' lectures are to hold one day only tomorrow, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. Members who want them for Christmas gifts or personal use are urged not to miss this opportunity.

Puppet Show Special Feature Of Quanton Christmas Party

Time is here again for an Evening of fun and good cheer for Quanton children, parents and Teachers, as the Quanton School annual Christmas party will be held tomorrow night, Friday, December 10, at the school auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

There will be Christmas carols, followed by a puppet show given by Harold Stieling, which everyone is sure to enjoy. Last but not least Santa is to visit and read this year.

The toys this Christmas may not be as good as they have been previous Christmases because some of the materials Santa used in his workshop are needed for the war effort, but every child is sure to find, if he has been good, that Santa has not forgotten him.

Refreshments, made by the Quanton Mothers, will be served at the end of the program to all, by Mrs. Newman Halverson, and committee of Room Mothers, Mrs. Karl Seiffert, Mrs. W. N. Milligan, Mrs. James Mock, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. J. W. Knott, Mrs. L. C. Minor, Mrs. Genaro A. Flores, Mrs. L. H. Clinger, Mrs. Donald Bevis, Mrs. Myron Snyder, Mrs. Harold Lauver, Mrs. J. H. M. Moad, under the direction of Mrs. Brooks Marshall, refreshment chairman.

Coats and hats will be checked by Troop No. 4 of the Girl Scouts, under the supervision of their leader, Mrs. Otto W. Winter.

Piety Hill, D. A. R., to Hear Evelyn Grayson Buchanan

Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. C. W. Wacker regent, will meet at the home of Mrs. William H. DeGraff, 951 Fairfax, on Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 2 p.m. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Mahd V. Ritz, Mrs. R. C. Sackett, Mrs. C. H. Maurice and Mrs. Delbert C. Jones.

Miss Evelyn Grayson Buchanan, director of Christian education, Christ Church, will be the speaker. Her subject, "Good Will Toward Men" will be a continuation of the theme "Peace on Earth" presented last month by Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese.

Following the usual holiday custom, each member will bring to the meeting clothing to be sold to one of the schools helped by D. A. R., which this year will be Tammessee D. A. R. Mountain School for Boys and Girls, at Tammessee, S. C.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

MR. AND MRS. R. W. BRICKER, of Ridgedale road, entertained an open house Sunday afternoon and evening. The party was in honor of their daughter, Helen Bricker, who was home from Pittsburgh and Sgt. Floyd Thomas, their son-in-law, who was on furlough from Buckley Field, Colo., where he is in the Air Corps.

BOBBY WATSON, of Wallace street, is returning today, from Dallas, Tex. She stopped off en route to visit with her brother, Pete, William J. Watson, Jr., in Mineral Wells.

MR. AND MRS. F. R. DICKENSON of Arlington drive expect Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dickinson, Mr. Dickinson's parents, of Toronto, for the Christmas holidays.

MRS. R. H. DUDLEY, of Charing Cross road, has her mother, Mrs. L. C. Shoemaker, of Aliquippa, Pa., visiting her.

MRS. MARTHA ROWLAND BROWN, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. A. Dugan, of Harmon street, has returned to her home in Abilene, Tex., after a two weeks visit.

MRS. R. A. DUGAN is the guest of Mrs. Charles Barr Field, of Westwood.

MARIUS DUFFOURE and his daughter, Santa, will join Mrs. Duffoure, who has been in Los Angeles for the past month, in Chicago on Sunday. They will remain in Chicago for the week before returning to their home, on Mohegan.

MAHLON H. STEVENS, of Wallace street, was present at the graduation of his son, Robert C. Stevens, from Frederick Army Air Field, Frederick, Okla., when he received his commission and silver wings Sunday.

MR. AND MRS. R. H. SOULIS, of Glenhurst, left Friday for Troy, N. Y., where they will be present at the presentation of the play "Christmas Revels" in which their daughter, Jeanette, takes the part of King Wenceslaus. Jeanette is in attendance at the Emma Willard College there.

MRS. H. C. WETZLER, of Santa Barbara drive, entertained Sunday afternoon in honor of her father, Rev. Adolph Mallick, who was celebrating his 84th birthday. There were present her children, Barbara and Henry, Jr., and Pfc. William Mallick, who is home on furlough from her brother, Egon Mallick and his wife.

Ridgedale Players Observing Holiday Season December 11

Ridgedale Players will observe the holiday season in their next program to be given Dec. 11 at 8:30 in the Birmingham Playhouse. Christmas carols will be sung throughout the evening by the mixed choir of Players, under the direction of Miss Grace Cummings, and by Mrs. Harry Kinney at the piano.

Dr. William Alford will present his adaptation of Charles Dickens' beloved Christmas Carol, assisted by Don Parker and Mary Leonard. For many years "Scrooge" has been a traditional part of the Christmas entertainment of Detroit groups, and Dr. Alford's treatment is unusual and delightful.

The refreshment committee, with Mrs. Red Jenkins as chairman, has planned a smorgasbord to top off the evening. The December show is for members only.

INSTITUTE OF ARTS

Dec. 12, 4 p.m., gallery talk: The Christmas Story in Art, by Elizabeth H. Payne; Dec. 13, 8:15 p.m., lecture: Living with Sculpture, by Elizabeth H. Payne (Main Library Auditorium); Dec. 13, 8:30 p.m., General tour of museum collections.

Methodist Women Have Xmas Party

Yesterday the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held its general meeting and Christmas tea, beginning at 1:15 o'clock, in the church.

Mrs. C. P. Davey, president of the group, conducted a brief business meeting followed by a Christmas program. The capella choir, under the direction of Victor Ulich, gave a splendid musical program. "Christmas in Russia" was discussed by Mrs. Carl Binkle and devotions were in charge of Mrs. Newell Allen.

On the tea committee were Mrs. Amos Gregory, Mrs. Henry Dahlquist, and Mrs. D. M. Robbins.
