Plan to Raise Hens? Here Are Helps

Another "little industry" of the back yard variety promises to be a 1943 boom in suburban poultry flocks that will help families ease the burden of meat rationing. That is the prediction of Ray Conolly, field secretary of the Michigan Poultry Improvement Association.

The Rev. Clifton G. Hoffman, Franklin minister, read the ceremony before a fireplace banked with red and blue candles and blue tapers. Red, white, and blue candles set in candelabra flanked the fireplace.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham A. Ramsay, of Los Angeles, wears a powder blue net dress made with tight bodice, sweetheart neckline, and five layers of full net for the skirt. She wore a small crown of flowers in her hair that held the shoulder-length veil of blue net. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and white sweet peas tied with white satin ribbon streamers. The couple was unattended.
