Miss Fortier Hopes To Get to Texas for Wedding Saturday

If Mrs. Alfred D. Fortier and her daughter, Gloria, can get plane reservations for tonight, the bride will become the bride of Lt. Edward C. Stanton, of Lake Field, Ariz., on Saturday, Feb. 13. If plane reservations cannot be secured, Gloria will be married as soon as the arrival.

The wedding was originally planned to take place at the Holy Name Church on Saturday with the Rev. Father David J. Dunne reading the service. Betty Lou Holm was to have been maid of honor and Dorothy Long and Betty Thoms, bridesmaids. However, the bridegroom was unable to get a leave, so the wedding plans were discarded and new ones made, as yet uncertain.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Fortier, of Fairfax road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stanton, of Royal Oak.

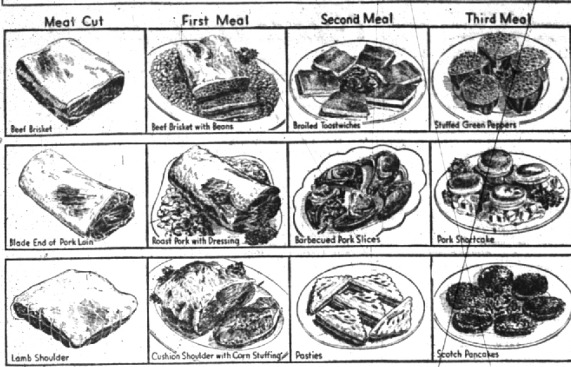

Miss Fortier attended Michigan State College where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority, and Lt. Stanton graduated from Highland Park Junior College.

The annual event of the Northwood parties given by Holy Name Church will replace the year with a Holy Name Parish home-cooked supper to be given at the Community House on Tuesday, March 2, at 7 o'clock.

A committee meeting, headed by Mrs. Claude E. Mosher, to make arrangements for the party, was held last Monday.

Bigger and Better Stuffing
The goodwill feasts held for Arabian chiefs feature as their main course one of their most popular dishes—holed camel. Each camel is stuffed with three sheep, which have been stuffed with eight chickens. The chickens, in turn, are stuffed with eggs and nuts.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR MEAT GO FURTHER

Nutrition authorities say that Mrs. American Housewife's job of feeding her family is one of the most important in the war effort. For nourishment food is going a long way toward building strength and morale on the home front.

At the same time, women are being called upon to conserve food as a wartime necessity. This means they must use every ingenuity to eliminate waste and get the most out of the food they buy.

How to make their meat go farther seems to be a subject of especial interest, since building meals around this food is an American tradition. So home economics experts have come to the rescue with all sorts of ideas and recipes designed to extend the most precious of all simple rations is followed. The roast should not be covered and no water added. A low temperature saves both meat and fuel. A broil dressing, sliced in balls and placed around the roast half an hour before it is done, will extend the servings. This roast requires 30 minutes per pound.

Second meal. The cold slices of beef pot are delicious heated or served cold.

Third meal. The trimmings from the roast make a terrific supper dish when combined with cream sauce and served between layers and over the top of biscuits as Pork Short Cake.

LAMB SHOULDER
First meal. A stuffed lamb shoulder is a thirty feast. The bones may be used to season vegetables or to make soup stock. A tasty stuffing is made for it by combining single kernel corn, cracker crumbs, seasonings and minced green peppers. The roast is placed on a rack in an open pan and about 40 minutes per pound allowed in a slow oven.

Second meal. For the next night's main dish, combine cubes of cold meat with lettuce vegetables and enough gravy to hold together. Place mounds of the mixture on squares of pasta and fold over to make a triangle. Pinch the edges together. Brown in a hot oven.

Third meal. The remaining lamb "bits" may be ground and mixed with cooked oatmeal, an egg and seasonings to make Scotch Pancakes for supper or for breakfast.

Bits of Birmingham

A mother who was a bit nettled about the treatment her son, a newspaper carrier, receives from some people, stopped in to tell us about it. "The routes cover a lot of ground, and are based on bicycle delivery, but the snow has been so bad that some of the time it has been impossible for the boys to ride, and deliveries have been late. Yet, some people don't understand this and are very ungracious. Now that the papers' price has been raised, some customers blame the boys for it, and it is quite discouraging."

Yes, there are people like that! Let the boys remember that the true ladies and gentlemen are those who are as polite to the newspaper and store clerk as to their wealthiest acquaintances.

A number of people have donated hunting knives to the Lions Club collection. The knives will be sent to the Lions Club at the San Francisco, and will go to our fishermen in the Southwest Pacific. Leave your hunting knife at one of these four depots: Stroup's market, Parks Coal, Bell's Greenhouse or McKee's Uptown Service station. Be your name to the knife, and the recipient will probably write you a letter.

Three pairs of shoes a year won't be any hardship for many people. Many folks have one good pair and one to work in. Small boys are said to be hard on shoes; also the ladies who buy the delicate creations which won't stand heavy rain.

They've arrested a couple of fellows in Detroit for selling shoes on Sunday. This Wanderer wonders how the government can get a conviction. Somebody in Washington issues an order, and Presto Change, everybody is supposed to know about it over night! There may be a few people who don't read newspapers and listen to the radio, and even if they do, see Washington run the country merely by letting some official call in a reporter and announcing to him "Tomorrow, Commodity X is frozen?" For example, two weeks ago there was a report about gasoline men here about charge accounts. The only thing any knew about it was a newspaper story about two inches long tucked away in a Detroit newspaper.

Recipes for Your Books, Cooks

Generous use of wheat and other flours will extend the meat allowance, suggests Jean Allen, home economist of the Kroger Food Foundation. Wheat and rice were both record crops this past year, and the types of wheat available in unrestricted quantity at food stores.

Use a meat dish to make the weekly meat ration go farther is given by Jean Allen:

- Beef-Vegetable Tarts
BEEF-VEGETABLE TARTS
1 lb. finely ground beef.
1 medium-sized stalk celery.
1 1/2 medium-sized green peppers.
1 medium onion.
1 medium onion.
1 tablespoon finely-chopped parsley.
1 1/2 teaspoon salt.
Dash of pepper.
2 tablespoons shortening.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Using food chopper, finely grind celery, green pepper, carrot and onion. Mix with beef, parsley, salt and pepper. Fry in hot fat until beef is well done, stirring frequently. Remove from heat, stir in lemon juice and milk.

Make a rich biscuit dough, using two cups flour. Roll as for crust (about one-eighth inch thick). Cut out circles with large cookie cutter (three inch diameter). Place one heaping tablespoon beef mixture on half the number of biscuit circles, covering with the remainder. Top crust will adhere to bottom if edges are dampened and then pressed together with tines of a fork. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in hot oven 400 F. 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Serve plain or with left-over gravy or catsup. Yield: Six servings.

Keep the pressure up!
Uncle Sam is fighting the biggest "fire" in world history. Every ounce of pressure we can put behind the war effort is needed now. If everybody kept right on sprinkling lawns while a big fire was raging, the firemen wouldn't have enough pressure. Just so with the telephone system. Long Distance telephone lines, like water mains, can carry only so much at a time. Much of the capacity of the Long Distance lines is needed now for the messages that speed war production.
Here's how you can help:
Do not make a Long Distance call unless it is really important.
Keep all calls as brief as you can.
