RECREATION Robert Woodrooffe Establishes First Tunisian Mission

(Continued from Page One) "I don't think so," Commissioner William Coit Alle declared. "I don't think the Commission should commit itself any further than in the past," and Moody agreed.

WM. STORY

(Continued from Page One) No, as in the past, other organizations will be asked to contribute to the fund for summer recreation, although it was initiated Monday night that the City would probably pay perhaps $100 or $200 beyond its customary appropriation.

RECREATION

According to the Sun story, Chaplain Woodrooffe had a large tent and shook hands with men as they came out. "While an Arab shepherd tending his sheep on the flat, open, sandy desert, the Chaplain stood square with a stovetop steaming out of the pyramid-shaped roof of the tent.

RECREATION

A small task which keeps the Chaplain busy is supplying toothbrushes and toothpaste to the soldiers. Woodrooffe said that his four children live in New York City.

Gets Degree CHURCH

The Speakers

Trustees and officers of the church presented plans to the members of the corporation in the session Tuesday. Among the speakers were Richard H. Kahlbus, chairman of the finance committee; R. H. C. Calkins, president of the church; Walter L. Morland; E. W. Sealhorn; N. C. Smith; Karl B. Lutz; and C. V. Crockett. Clark C. Coulter presided.

The pastor, the Rev. W. Glen Harris, Ph. D., also spoke briefly.

As part of the financial program a spokesman for the church said that some of the members are buying war bonds on behalf of the church so that the Government can use the money now the church later.

Following is the text of the resolution adopted by the members: "That the Corporation authorize the Board of Trustees to take such action as it deems appropriate to provide for the erection of a new church edifice in the future, at such time as its adequate funds are actually on hand."

"That the Corporation also authorize the Board of Trustees to take such steps as it deems proper to raise funds for that purpose, at the rate of not less than $25,000 per year."
