School of Religion Gets Good Start; 90 Are Enrolled

The Birmingham School of Religion had an auspicious beginning on Monday evening at the First Baptist Church with over 90 enrolled in six classes.

The group discussing "A Just and Durable Peace" with an attendance of over 20, spent two 50-minute sessions with Dr. Raymond Miller, of Wayne University, who outlined a historical background for the discussions which are to follow.

The largest group discussed with George Carhart, of Pontiac, the Teachings of Jesus and the application of these teachings to present day problems. This group had an attendance of 30.

Ten sat around the table with Miss Julia Kagin, studying the project of an adequate youth program.

Twelve students with the Rev. Joseph O. Nelson discussed ways of teaching.

Nine were enrolled with Mrs. F. W. Seaholm in the study of sources of material and methods of working with beginners.

Eight students worked with Theodore Czerkowski on the problem of church and home recreation.

Between sessions, Dr. W. Glen Harris directed the worship service and spoke on the theme "Charity Never Faileth."

A very interesting exhibit of religious books was held under the direction of Miss Evelyn Buchanan.

Other students are urged to join the school next Monday evening at 7:30 in the First Baptist church.

Golden Text: "Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of trouble when it cometh." Psalms 112:7.
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, Feb. 7, is "Soul and Body."
The Golden Text (Zechariah 4:6) is: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 8:16, 17): "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (p. 326): "God and man are not the same, but in the order of divine science, God and man coexist and are eternal. God is the parent Mind, and man is God's spiritual offspring."

Oakland Hills Plans Season

M. M. Burgess was re-elected president of the Oakland Hills Country Club at the annual meeting of club officials held at the Detroit Athletic Club Saturday.

Mr. Burgess stated that the club would continue to operate during 1943 in spite of gas rationing.

Other officers elected were B. P. Costello as vice-president, R. O. Mead as secretary, R. W. Brickell as treasurer. The board of directors members are W. E. Otto, E. B. Rogers, N. D. Hoke, R. J. Mullally, and D. J. Hutchins.
