That the champions of the week at Torry Field are Boyd Lundy, horseshoes; Bruce Lebow, croquet; and Rocky McMahon, checkers?

Quarion

That each week a staff of assistants is appointed at Quarion? This week Tom Nalle was captain, Simon Waughman and Ann Rick-enbaugh were lieutenants, and the following served as their assistants: Dwight Allen, Sally Allen, Mariene Barnes, Donald Goldsmith, Mary Jane Hill, Ann Kinney, Jane Mallory, Suzanne Minzel, Amy Lou Strunk, and Buddy Leleite. The checker winners thus far at Quarion are Gregory Fredericks, Bill Saunders, Mac Booth, Ed Stenger, Mary Jane Hill, and Barbara Kinney.

That the leaders in the croquet race at Quarion are Walter Schwink, Jane Mehrer, Mac Booth, and Dwight Allen; while the horse-show game is led by Tom Nalle, Tony Underhill, and Mac Booth?

That one of the most popular pastimes at Quarion is high jumping? Bill Saunders is the leader with Mac Booth, Sinclair Boynton, Eric Heizer, Bill Mainland, Dwight Allen, Mary Jane Hill, and Barbara Kinney close behind. Among the younger group are Corky Goldsmith, Ed Stenger, Mary Adams, Linda Miller, Ann Heizer, Ronald Thompson, and Pam Scialora.

Adams

That the boys and girls at Adams have been busy collecting tin cans and grease and clearing the playgrounds of glass?

That leathercraft has been started at Adams and the boys and girls are already wearing the wrist purses which they have made?

That a croquet tournament was recently staged at Adams? Granville Dance is the champion, and Mary Lou Gregory is runner-up.

That the children at Adams are

Pitchin' In

The labor problem is no discourager to the Roy Berghaus family of Farmington, Mo. They all just pitch in and go what there is to be done. A year or so ago they decided to do double duty, so Papa Roy joined a naval construction battalion and commissioned Mrs. B. and the little ones to farm their 125 acres. At top you see her en route for a load of hay, with little Carol, 9, piloting the tractor and Bruce next of the Berghaus brood going along to help. Carol does a daily chore in the dairy department, lower left, and at lower right are some 4-day-old Durcees, indicating that Berghaus pork production is coming along just fine.
