Before going there, he completed civilian pilot training at Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, Mich., and enjoyed a furlough at home.

Hint For Dr. Richer: George Hoyt, of Berkeley, Cal., said he had found that the best way to catch rats was to feed them from a puddling flavored with cherry. "I got those rats so tight I could catch them with my bare hands."—Time.

DURING the first year of our toughest war, we trained a lot of men—made a lot of fighting tools—built a lot of shipping. To help pay for it all, we bought War Bonds. Altogether, 50 millions of us bought War Bonds. And nearly 30 millions of us started putting on the average, 10 percent of our pay into War Bonds every payday through the Payroll Savings Plan. That was a good start. But, it was only a start. What we did in '42 is not enough for '43! So, now, as you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But, don't stop there. See if you can't boost your share!
