Parents Attend Culver Exercises

Several Birmingham families were on hand for the four-day graduation exercises at Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind., where their sons are students. Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley M. Brown, of Waddington road, along with their daughter, Jean, and Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Alvin Mambert, left Friday to see their son, Kingsley, Jr., receive his diploma.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Carlson, of Westwood Avenue, accompanied by Jerry-Lou Smith, also attended their son, Philip's, graduation at Culver. Although their sons were not graduating, the P. J. Kertis, of Arlington road, the William H. Mannings of Puritan road, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wibel, of Oakland drive, went to Culver for the weekend.
 Dick Kent, Bill Manning, and Dick Wibel are students at the Academy and all returned with their parents for the summer vacation. Jim Manning, brother of Bill, will be returning to Culver in September with his brother, as he is entering the academy then.

Two Women Win Prizes in Contest

Two Birmingham women received awards in the Wartime Advertising Contest sponsored by the Women's Advertising Club of Detroit. Helen Shaw Stinson, 374 Aspen road, winner of the third prize received a $100 war bond. Mrs. A. J. Hines, 372 Harmon avenue, received $2 in war stamps as an honorable mention award.
 The contest which is open to all consumers in the state of Michigan was conducted to determine how helpful wartime advertising is in meeting the conditions brought about by wartime living such as shortages of materials, scarcities of labor, food rationing and such. Entrants were required to write letters of 200 words or less describing how advertising appearing in any form, newspaper, magazine, radio, direct mail, streetcar or bus has helped them in their everyday lives. A thousand dollars in war bonds were offered as prizes.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

A shower was given for MRS. DAVID CURRY by members of the Presbyterian Choir Wednesday evening, June 2, at the home of MRS. CHARLES G. KINISON, of West Lincoln avenue.
 Members of the church also honored DENA HALLOCK, kindergarten teacher at Barnum School, who is leaving shortly for Seattle, with MRS. MERLE P. BAILEY, of Bates avenue. A party was given last night at the church.
 MARY LOU GODINE, of Bay City, will be the guest of SHIRLEY SUZANNE SPINNEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Spike, of Glenhurst avenue, for a few days next week following graduation at St. Mary's Academy and Conservatory at Monroe, Mich., where the girls were students.
 MRS. I. G. BRIEN, of 256 Puritan road, is in New York for a short visit.
 CADETS WILLIAM R. KENT and RALPH E. PENNOYAR, of Birmingham, students at Shattuck School, Fairbault, Minn., attended the Commencement dance at the school on Saturday evening, June 5.
 MRS. THOMAS B. ANDERSON, of Puritan road, is expecting her daughter, ALICE LAUNDER SHAW, who is arriving today from Ohio.
 The next meeting of the Book Club will be held this week, with MRS. MERLE R. WEBSTER's home on Pleasant avenue.
 BROCKIE OATMAN, daughter of the Atwood B. Oatman, of Pilgrimage road, has returned from Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., where she has completed her freshman year.
 MRS. W. WHITE, RAYMOND, of Willett street, is entertaining her sister, MRS. T. F. HITCHINS, of Indianapolis, for a short visit.
 The ROBERT H. WHITES, former local residents, have moved from Cleveland to New York City.
 BILL CURLEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Curley, of Bedford road, arrived home last week from Castle Heights Military Academy at Lebanon, Tenn., where he has just completed his sophomore year.
 MR. and MRS. RICHARD E. KEARNS, of Hancock avenue, returned last week following a month's stay in Coconut Grove, Florida.
 BOB LORENZEN, of Toledo, O., and BOB ALLYCE, of Milwaukee, Wis., spent last weekend as the house guest of DON O'CONNOR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor, of Avon lane. Don and WENDY HOLZWORTH, of Wing Lake, are leaving today for Milwaukee where they will be the guests of Bob Allyce and JOHN DEDEBERLY. All of the boys are students and graduates of Cranbrook School.

Troth Told Bloomfield Hills Branch Is Guest Of Mrs. Weed

The two local branches of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association are holding their separate meetings on Monday, June 14.
 Plans have been completed for the annual pilgrimage of the Birmingham branch of the Association and have been announced by Mrs. Donald C. Price, general chairman. The pilgrimage will be held from 10:30 to 2:30 on Monday.

Gardens on List
 The gardens to be visited are those of Mrs. Robert D. Baker, 648 Southfield road; Mrs. Harry D. Vaughn, 880 Shirley drive; Mrs. Charles F. Dye, 681 Lake Park drive; Mrs. W. A. P. John, 556 Tooting lane; Mrs. Atwood B. Oatman, 287 Pilgrim road; Mrs. E. E. Anderson, 351 Yarmouth road; and Mrs. M. S. Kice, Jr., 1266 Glenary road. It is suggested that, for greatest convenience, the gardens be visited in the sequence given. Flags will be used as identifications of the gardens.
 A picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold R. Ross, on West Lone Pine road, at 1 o'clock. Each member is asked to bring a hot luncheon and service. Coffee will be served by the social committee.

Bloomfield Hills Branch
 The Bloomfield Hills branch is meeting on Monday at the home of Mrs. Frederick G. Weed, of Orchard Hill, at 12:30 p. m. for a hot-lunch and service. Coffee will be served by the social committee.
 Miss Claudette Bradley, head of the home science department of the Consumer Power Company in Pontiac, will be the speaker. She will discuss and show samples of the production of fruit and vegetables.
 Those assisting at the luncheon will be Mrs. James Q. Kice, Jr., W. D. Thompson, Mrs. H. Gray Murry, and Mrs. DeForest Candler, Jr.

Patricia Kates and Charles Gardiner to Wed at Academy

Patricia Kates left last week for Annapolis, Md., where she is to become the bride of Ensign Charles Vero Gardiner today in the Naval Academy Post Chapel. Ensign Gardiner was graduated from the academy as an ensign yesterday.
 Mrs. Richard de Roachin and Josephine Kates, sisters of the bride-to-be accompanied her to Annapolis and are to act as attendants at the wedding. Patricia's mother, Mrs. Melvin J. Kates, of Oakland avenue left this week. Ensign Gardiner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence V. Gardiner, of Hawthorne road, will also be present at the ceremony.

1943 RAGTIME

Remember the days when Ragtime was the thing? Now we have salvage in ragtime—the salvage of all kinds of rags from the home to go into war jobs. Wool, silk, rayon, cotton, linen, burlap, rope—all are needed. And what will they make? Blueprint paper, wiping rags, overcoats, uniforms, men in service—even the cotton filler from an old mattress makes cellulose for gunpowder. Get busy and get rags! Here's a dandy salvage job in which all women can participate.

 Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Parrish, of West Long Lake road, announce the birth of a girl, Sonia, at the Women's Hospital on Friday, June 4. This makes the third daughter for the Parrishes; the other two are Sandra and Karen.

Best of Good Wishes to You, Father . . .

WHEN you start counting your blessings Father's Day, remember that those fine sons and daughters of yours, who took such infinite care in the selection of their Father's Day remembrances, really honor you in their hearts every day in the year.
 They may forget to tell you sometimes, or be too occupied with their own busy worlds to express the appreciation they have for you; but it's a standing tribute to their good intentions that Labelle's always have the gifts on hand that you desire.
 It's because we hear the phrase so often, "Gee, that's what Dad would like," that we're able to anticipate your pleasures and needs. Consequently, when your Day of Days rolls around, there's never a shortage in our stocks of leather goods, hobby equipment, smoking accessories, books, and important little bagatelles which give added happiness to the job of being head of the family.
 We're awfully pleased that we have even a small part in the makings of a special day for you. May it be a truly happy Father's Day, and many more to come!
 Father's Day is June 20.
