

Local Business Here for Detroit Race Riots

Each of us has many objectives in mind for the coming year. It is up to us to make the most of the opportunities that are before us. Let's make the most of the opportunities that are before us. Let's make the most of the opportunities that are before us.

This month's collection starts Thursday, June 24 and ends Wednesday, June 30, these being the best collecting days of the month. Do your part!

SIXTY-SIXTH YEAR—NO. 13

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1943 $2.00 PER YEAR (In Oakland County)—SINGLE COPIES, 5c

TISSOT and THAT

In Fighting This War, You Must Be Careful of the Nation's Youth. Let's admit, right now, that to win a war a nation must do everything that can to destroy the life and energy of its enemy. In the present war, that everything opposed to "civilization." But it's not the only way to do away with the enemy. It's the way of the gangster, that now threatens the very future of civilization.

'A' Gasoline Renewal Plan Announced

Plans to renew motorists' "A" gasoline coupon books by mail under the streamlined renewal plan recently announced by the U. S. & Canada, Mr. Helen Gennep, chief clerk, announced today.

Paratrooper Rev. McKnight, Former Cleric, Buried Here

Burial took place at the Greenwood Cemetery here Saturday for the Rev. William C. McKnight, 72 years old, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church during the period when the present edifice was under construction.

Register Boys for Baseball; Summer Recreation Program to Attract 600 Participants

Registration at the four playgrounds and pool got under way Monday and it is estimated that about 250 people will take part in the program this summer.

Detroit Riots Bring Curfew to This City

Although nothing even remotely resembling race rioting has occurred in Birmingham, the City has been as quiet as a churchyard after 10 p. m. since Monday night, when Gov. Kelly ordered emergency restrictions in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Forms Will Be Available Soon At Gas Stations

With volunteer help now being enlisted, the board will begin processing the applications as soon as they start coming in. New ration books will be mailed back as soon as they are ready.

20,000 Additional Women to Be Used In War Factories

One hundred and eighty thousand more workers who are not now employed in the Detroit area will be needed during the next year, Montague A. Clark, director of the War Manpower Commission for the State, told the Rotary Club in a talk Monday night.

Group Receives Citizen's Papers

A number of residents of the Birmingham area were granted citizenship papers Monday night at the Birmingham City Hall.

Assign New Pastor To Embury Church

Embury Methodist Church, 1312 South Woodward avenue, is to have a new minister, the present pastor, the Rev. Dan B. Jorgensen, will preach his last sermon Sunday morning.

Police Notify Store Keepers

The Birmingham Police Department issued its proclamation, Police Sgt. Earl Moody and Patrolman Robert Emmett called on all the business places, informing them of the closing order. At 10 p. m. there was scarcely a car on Woodward avenue, and the same condition has prevailed since.

Police Await Report From Accident Driver

Police are waiting for a report from the driver of a car which hit the parked machine of New A. McVeen, 362 Ferndale, on Sunday afternoon.

Clawson Sergeant Reported Killed

A Clawson man, Sgt. Howard E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Johnson, 3400 North 10th, was reported by the Royal Canadian Air Force as having been previously reported missing. The report came from Ottawa.

Some Stores Close Wednesday At Noon

A number of Birmingham stores have started or are about to start closing Wednesday afternoon.

New Day Nursery Ordinance OK'd by City Commission

A new ordinance regulating in detail the operation of nurseries in Birmingham was adopted by the City Commission Monday night.

Samovar ... Racing Boat ...

Those who were just a few of the things advertised in last week's Eclectic. Who knows the fare on the current issue?

Community House Drive Over the Top

The Community House financial drive has gone over the top it was reported Wednesday. Cash and goods totalled $10,000.

State Victory Garden Head in City; Praises Effort Here

By JEAN ALICE POTTER Birmingham's Victory Gardens were praised by Paul R. Krone, State Victory Garden chairman, when he was Tuesday with Mrs. E. G. Grunau, co-chairman of the Oakland County Victory Gardens.

Royal Oak Driver Hits Police Car

Imagine the chagrin of Otto P. Schleicher, 1600 Lincoln, Royal Oak, when he saw the driver of the car which he hit on Woodward avenue, Patrolman Robert W. Appel, driving a City patrol car, was angle parking when the car struck the rear bumper, causing $20 damage to the City car and $5 damage to Schleicher's car.

Women's Division Gives Supper Tonight

The Women's Division of the Embury Methodist Church is giving a ham supper for the church tonight at 6 o'clock. The church is located on the corner of Woodward and Bennett avenues.

Why not find out and profit by turning to THE CLASSIFIED ADS

To place YOUR ad, phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesday