

Men In Service Charles Lawler, Jr. Is 2nd Lieutenant Charles F. Lawler, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Lawler, of 464 Oak, Birmingham, was commissioned June 23, 1943, as second lieutenant, Army of the United States, upon graduation from the Transportation Corps Officers Candidate School at State College, Miss. This school is located on the campus of Mississippi State College.

nine months at sea on a Coast Guard schooner performing submarine patrol, is now in the officer training class at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., for an intensive course of four months. His types now live in Ardmore, Pa.

GRADUATED Bludejacket Ira E. Gosling, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Gosling, 3244 1/2 Bath road, Birmingham, is now even more fit to fight the Jap for he was graduated as a specialist from the Navy service school for torpedoman's Mate June 21, at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. He was advanced to the petty officer rating of Torpedoman, third class upon graduation.

Walter Eis Now An Ensign Walter Eis, newly commissioned ensign in the Naval Reserve, left Wednesday for San Francisco, whence he expects to go to sea. He recently completed four months of training at the Birmingham school for deck officers at Columbia University, New York City. He was also a member of the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and worked for Republic Aircraft in Detroit. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lett E. Eis, Brookside road.

LEARNING RADIO On his way towards becoming a petty officer in the U. S. Navy is George F. Bagnall, 18, son of Mr. George E. Bagnall, 19096 Bedford, Birmingham. He is attending a training school for radiomen operated by the Navy on the campus of Chicago, University, Ill. The course is of 16-weeks duration and upon graduation the students will be assigned to duty upon the fleet or at shore stations.

Winston H. Cox Now An Ensign Winston H. Cox, son of Mrs. M. Howard Cox of Birmingham, graduated last Wednesday from the Columbia University Midshipman School in New York City, receiving his commission as ensign. Arriving home last Friday, he left to spend the weekend with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bertam H. Cox, of Flint. Another aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Greaves, of Detroit, will entertain for Ensign Cox at a dinner party tonight at the Detroit Golf Club.

TRAINING FOR OFFICER Bob Tyson, former Wing Lake resident, after spending the past three days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan, and his wife and three-year-old son, all of whom live at 208 East Brown.

GRADUATED Bludejacket Ira E. Gosling, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Gosling, 3244 1/2 Bath road, Birmingham, is now even more fit to fight the Jap for he was graduated as a specialist from the Navy service school for torpedoman's Mate June 21, at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. He was advanced to the petty officer rating of Torpedoman, third class upon graduation.

Walter Eis Now An Ensign Walter Eis, newly commissioned ensign in the Naval Reserve, left Wednesday for San Francisco, whence he expects to go to sea. He recently completed four months of training at the Birmingham school for deck officers at Columbia University, New York City. He was also a member of the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and worked for Republic Aircraft in Detroit. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lett E. Eis, Brookside road.

City of Birmingham to ascertain whether or not the same structural sound, and be subject to findings to which orders.

each such survey is not complying with the provisions of this ordinance, and the Health Officer shall order such survey closed, and any such surveyor who closed shall not re-open until there has been a certificate by the Health Officer and the Chief of the Fire Department that the conditions bringing about such closing order have been corrected.

1916 Class Plans Annual Reunion In the year 1916, 23 students were graduated from Birmingham High School at the annual June exercise. Since that time, the members of the class, who have been able to meet together, have been the only one to hold a reunion each year.

only to paint an average room with KENT-TONE MIRACLE WALL FINISH One gallon ($2.98) covers an average room. Does wall-paper and most interior wall surfaces. Mixes with water. Dries in 1 hour. No offensive paint odor. Washable! Let us demonstrate!

RED RIPE WATERMELON 26 Lb. Average WHOLE MELON $1.29 HALF MELON 33c QUARTER MELON 15c

Here's your GUARANTEE OF FRESH BREAD The Freshness Date Right on Marvel's Wrapper! 3 1/2-lb. Loaves 29c

No Ration Points Required NEW OXYDOL 23c MEDIUM SIZE IVORY SOAP 6c PEANUT BUTTER 2 1/2-lb. Jar 54c MUSTARD 2 1/2-lb. Jar 19c

BUY WAR BONDS FOR BULLETS AND BOMBS KITCHEN FATS ARE NEEDED FOR MUNITIONS SUPER MARKETS AMERICA'S LEADING FOOD DEPARTMENT STORES