

Two Cars Collide At Chester, Merrill

A car driven by Edward Spicer, 383 Henrietta, going west on Merrill at 7:20 p. m. Wednesday, collided with a machine going north on Chester driven by Mrs. Dorothy Vary, 607 Stanley. Neither is a stop street.

Spicer's wife, the former Peggy McBride, suffered from bruises and shock, and her mother, Mrs. Edith McBride, also was bruised. Mrs. Vary suffered minor bruises. Both cars were damaged, and one of the machines hit a light pole, breaking the globe. Lloyd Harvey was listed as a witness.

"Did you cancel all my engagements, as I told you, Parker?" "Yes, sir, but Lady Millicent didn't take it very well. She said you were to marry her next Monday."

Flag Week Proclamation

To the Citizens of Birmingham, Greetings: WHEREAS, June 8 to 14 is designated as Flag Week by the United States Flag Association, which sponsors throughout the Nation this week commemorating the adoption of our flag.

Now, Therefore, As Mayor of Birmingham, I proclaim the week of June 8 to 14 Flag Week; direct that our flag be displayed on all municipal buildings; and urge that our citizens display the National Emblem in their homes, places of business and elsewhere.

Furthermore, I urge our people to participate in the Flag Week by buying war bonds so that our city will discharge with honor and distinction its share of responsibility in this campaign of homage to our flag and aid to the victory for our brave sons on the battlefronts of the world, are offering all that they possess.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Birmingham to be affixed this 31st day of May in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Forty-three.

PRICE 'If You're Driving 'Hot' Car, Go Easy!

(Continued from Page 1) Lockhart, Troy and William Demick, of Clawson, all members of the ration board. No dollar and cents retail price ceilings have just been issued governing most articles of food. It is hoped that all shoppers will make themselves familiar with these maximum food prices. All stores are required to post these maximum price lists, together with prices they are charging for each article. They are not allowed to charge more than the maximum prices, but they may, if they wish, charge less, Mr. Lewis said.

These price regulatory measures are a vital part of the program for the prevention of wartime inflation. It is therefore hoped that merchants and shoppers will immediately become as fully informed as possible.

"The price panel has already received splendid co-operation from the local merchants in complying with the new dollar and cents food prices and feel confident that the entire program can be handled locally in a friendly and neighborly fashion for the common benefit of everyone concerned in the community. Inquiries and suggestions will be welcomed," Mr. Lewis said.

Track Squad Feted At Picnic Tuesday

Baldwin's undefeated tracksters were treated to their annual picnic dinner last Tuesday night at Springdale Park, their parents being the hosts.

Talks were given by Miss Vida McGiffin for the faculty; Captain Bob Murray who had just been elected; Coach Ernest Engel and Fred Zoellin, Sr.

Russell H. Fisher, Sr., chairman of the dinner, acted as toastmaster and ended the program by introducing Fred Zoellin, Sr., who in turn surprised the area meet winners on the team with miniature track shoes. These little trophies were also given to Coach Engel and Miss McGiffin. Mr. Zoellin closed by urging all parents to attend the Royal Oak Birmingham track meet tonight at 7:30 and to get the habit of attending the meets next year.
