Knocking on Wood

As a rule, soldiers on duty don't write home many comments about civilian affairs...

They are more than disgruntled. They are downright resentful and angry...

Of course the soldiers see only one side of it; they don't stop to consider the analysis of the labor market...

Other Problems - And then, the labor leaders have other distressing problems which for some reason don't get much sympathy from the soldiers...

Henry and Edsel Ford Built More Than a Great Industry

It is a human pity that, many times over, the worth and virtues of the deceased...

Not in many years has Detroit, Michigan, and the United States lost so honest and able a man as Edsel B. Ford...

When was declared, Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Co., was an ill man...

Surely, in this respect, Edsel Ford gave his life for his country just as those who die upon the fighting fronts...

Edsel Ford earned his place in human affairs; his wise parents, in the building of an industrial empire...

WHEN THIS WAR IS WON

WHEN THIS WAR IS WON, the American people will start a war with their own country...
