

Many Birmingham Students Get College Degrees in Graduation Exercises

Marilyn Bard and Robert Riecks Say Vows in Pensacola

The chapel at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla., was the scene of the marriage of Marilyn Bard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Bard, of Detroit, to Lt. Robert E. Riecks, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Riecks, of 13-Mile road, Birmingham, on Saturday evening.

The bride wore a gown of white marquisette made with a bodice of Chantilly lace and a bouffant skirt fashioned over a hoop, under which the ruffles on the underskirt showed. Her fingertip veil of tulle fell from a tiara of lace and she carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Ruth Ives, of Detroit, was maid of honor. Her dress was made of pale blue marquisette and lace. Mrs. Bard chose a dress of champagne crepe and a corsage of blue cornflowers. Mrs. Riecks wore sown crepe and roses.

The reception, held in the Officers' Club was attended by the wedding guests. The bride and groom left for a short wedding trip. They will make their home in Pensacola.

Margaret Coryell To Wed in Summer, Army Permitting

Parties are beginning for Margaret Coryell who has ventured no further in setting her wedding date than saying it will be in mid-summer. The reason for her hesitancy, a well-known one these days, is that her fiancé, Karl Theodore Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Larson, of Callender, Ia., is a member of the Army Enlisted Reserve, stationed at Camp Robertsgart, Calif., and is not sure when he can get to Harlow.

The first party for Margaret will be given Sunday night in the home of Mrs. Ronald J. Waterbury, of Williamson road. Guests who will be present are: Jane Gibbons, Kay Farrell, Phyllis Reaney, Joan Ellis, Lucille Wayman, Shirley Chamindie, Mrs. Wendell Lewellen, Jr., Elizabeth Lynd, Mrs. Robert Hilty, Jane Lee Tremper, Betty Jensen, Mrs. E. H. P. Elliott, Mrs. Edward S. Clark, Mrs. Ralph I. Coryell, and Betty Coryell.

Out-of-town guests will include Phemia Haymans, of Berkeley, Ruth Gillette and Mrs. Henry McQueen, of Lathrup Township, Betty Muel, Mrs. Harold Atherton, and Mrs. George Hagner, of Detroit.

The bride-elect, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Coryell, of Fernside avenue, attended the College of Wooster, Wooster, O., and is a graduate of the State University of Iowa and Fort Dodge Junior College at Fort Dodge, Ia.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Charlier, of Hunter boulevard, revealed the engagement of their daughter, JEANETTE, to a gathering of close friends and relatives in their home Sunday evening. Jeanette will marry Joseph Olanewatz, Post Office 2535, of Passaic, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding.

Schliskey-Rogers Rites Performed

Speaking their vows before the bridegroom's young relatives, Mrs. Keneth Rogers, of Marietta, Mich., Mary Jane Rogers and Richard Thomas Schliskey were married in Trinity Methodist Church, Highland Park, Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Rogers, of Highland Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Schliskey, of Lahser road, Birmingham.

The bride's dress of white spun rayon was made with a sweetheart neckline, bracelet-length sleeves, and slight train. The ends of her tulle veil were caught in a flowered coronet, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby breath.

The rite was attended by her sisters, Mrs. E. L. Johnston, of Gosse Pointe, who was dressed in a daffodil silk dress. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Wilbur Martell, of Royal Oak, and Betty Sexton, of Detroit, wore pink and blue flowered organza dresses. All the attendants carried roses.

Robert Schliskey attended his brother as best man, with E. L. Johnston, and Richard Hansz, of Detroit, seating the guests.

A reception for the wedding guests was held in the flower bedecked home of the bride's parents after the couple left for a short honeymoon. They will make their home in Highland Park until the house they are building in Lathrup Township is completed.
