Lathrup Townsite

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH
"You'll be sorry if you don't hurry up quick and get in on the fun-program now being organized hereabouts." Olive Frederick is organizing the activities to suit everyone save maybe Rip Van Winkle. Last week in the "Townsite Topics" a questionnaire was published asking each resident to clip and mail the recreation he'd most enjoy, such as hiking, clubs, gym classes, picnics, get-togethers, etc., to say nothing of canning, according to reports most of us will be bustling to these activities soon. Don't be a carpet-slipper-addict... a house coat chair-warmer.

Neighborhood Fun
Saturday night was a memorable occasion. Neighbors gathered together at the school for a box social, and had a marvelous time. Slacks, overalls, sunbonnets and rubber boots were in evidence on the dance floor. Some played cards. Not all shared their boy lunches with strangers. Some ate their own with their friends, companions. Saturday, May 15, another non-profit party will be given. Mrs. John Freese, Mrs. Wilfred Thompson, Mrs. Robert

Mrs. L. H. France, of Lathrup boulevard, and son, Tommy, are in the military. Mrs. E. S. Neiswander, of Dunkirk, Ind.

Cyril Arthur Player Tells Boys of Pressures in Europe

Speaking to senior boys at Cranbrook School, Cyril Player, noted foreign correspondent and author, emphasized the importance of "individual pressure"—and its effect upon the individual in the making. He explained the various types of pressure so long and so constantly at work on the inhabitants of all of the countries of Central Europe. Forceful pressure is applied also to foreign correspondents in the attempt to influence their writings, according to Mr. Player.

"The Human Side of History" was the title selected by Mr. Player and he stressed the importance of understanding the political and economic pressures at work everywhere. He distinguished between vertical and horizontal history explaining that the foreign correspondent must look back across the horizon of countries visited and write of each mainly by comparison with its neighbors.

"I usually wrote my best feature stories about a country I had visited after leaving it," Mr. Player said. "I found this practice healthier; and the stories more truly reflected actual conditions."

Mr. Player is now gathering material for a new book on the history and traditions of all of the Cranbrook Institutions.

Obituary

Corra M. Averill-Fuller
Funeral services for Mrs. Corra M. Averill-Fuller, mother of George R. Averill, 669 Rivenock avenue, and Paul Neal Averill, 876 Glenogary Circle, Birmingham, were held Monday afternoon in Cleveland, Ohio, where she had passed away early last Saturday morning.

She had numerous friends in and near Birmingham, gained through many years of visiting here with her sons and their families. Her last visit here was during the recent Christmas holidays.

She became ill at 11:30 Tuesday night of last week, and within an hour had lapsed into unconsciousness, from which she never rallied. Her four sons, George, Paul, of here, Edgar N. of Lake Orion, and Roy of Highland Park, were with her when she passed away. She was buried next to the father of her four sons, George Edgar Averill, in Riverside Cemetery, Cleveland. The father had passed on 34 years ago.

Mrs. Averill-Fuller is also survived by a brother, Raymond W. Palmer, of Maywood, Ill., and nine grandchildren. She was born in North Kingsville, Ohio, and had spent practically her entire life as a resident of Cleveland.

Christian Science services were read, she having been a member of that church for the past 25 years.

Charles D. Price
Charles Douglas Price, of Cranbrook, died at Henry Ford Hospital Friday morning following an illness of several days.

Mr. Price was born 36 years ago, March 22, 1906, in Newark, N. J., where he attended public schools. He also attended Pratt Institute, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Art Students League, of New York City. He was an instructor of art at Cranbrook Academy.

He is survived by his wife, Martha Rose Price, a son, Charles D. Price, Jr., his mother, Mrs. Edith E. Price, of East Orange, N. J., a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Elliott, of East Orange, N. J.

Services were held Saturday at 11 a. m. in Christ Church, Cranbrook with arrangements made by Bell Funeral Home. The Rev. Charles H. Colahan officiated. Burial was in Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Mary A. West
Mrs. Mary A. West, died Wednesday afternoon, March 17, at her home, 523 Townsend street, following a long illness. She was born in Port Egan, Ont., 72 years ago and came to the United States when she was 18 years old. She married William West who preceded her in death. They lived in Pontiac and came to Birmingham 30 years ago. She was a member of the First Day Adventist Church in Pontiac. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Stella Phillips, of Bloomfield Hills, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday from the residence with arrangements by the Bell Funeral Home. The Rev. E. R. Reed, of Pontiac, officiated. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Pearson
Mrs. Sarah Pearson died suddenly, Wednesday evening at her residence, 1050 Humphrey street. She was born in England 57 years ago. She was educated there and married Joseph Pearson. They came to the United States in 1915, and moved to Birmingham 21 years ago.

She is survived by four sons, William Pearson of Birmingham, William S. Pearson of Southfield, Pte. Norman S. Pearson of Army of the United States, and Pvt. John A. Pearson, also of the Army; and a brother and two sisters in England.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Bell Funeral Home.

Henry J. Thurston
Funeral services for Harry J. Thurston were held Monday afternoon at the Wilber Funeral Home in Romeo with burial in Bruce-Armda Cemetery.

Mr. Thurston died suddenly Saturday evening at his home, 264 Catalpa drive. He was born 77 years ago, August 2, 1865, in Armada Township, the son of Manley and Maria Bishop Thurston. He was the great-grandson of Joseph Thurston, an early pioneer who came to Macomb County and purchased land in 1833.

Mr. Thurston married Lora Jarvis at Armada on Sept. 16, 1891 and she died in 1914. From 1902 to 1938, he was engaged in lumber manufacturing in the state of Mississippi. He returned to Michigan about five years ago to live with his son in Birmingham.

Surviving are a son, Leon Thurston, of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Abbie Stephens, of Athens, O.; and two grandchildren.

Symbols of Faithful Friendship

(Thinking Ahead to Easter!)

THERE is nothing quite as precious as friendship; and when it is faithful friendship it seems to transcend in importance all the lesser things of life.

For without true friends, how empty and how dull our lives would be! It is entirely fitting, therefore, that on occasion we should pause and commemorate our friendships, for "when they are real, they are not glass threads or frost-work, but the solidest thing we know"—to use the words of Emerson.

Easter, the great re-dawning of the hope of the world, is being sensed by more and more people each year as an occasion when friendships should be acclaimed anew; and it is being done increasingly through gift-giving.

Here at LaBelles you will find appropriate, well-chosen books and gifts—of such character, richness and adequacy that they will assuredly become what you would wish them to be—"symbols of faithful friendship."

THE WOLVERINE

Turns the Spotlight on GIFT PIECES

IN the furnishing and decorating of today's homes a new emphasis is developing—the highlighting of focal points by the addition of objects of artistic character.

THE Wolverine, alert to this trend, has greatly expanded its Gift Section by assembling a luxurious variety of exquisite individual pieces, pairs and sets of art objects that are not only artistically beautiful in themselves, but will, with discriminating arrangement, set off and embellish the more substantial furniture you cherish.

LIKE the bells of olden days who cleverly placed a tiny black patch near her eyes, her lips or her dimples to attract attention to her most charming feature, you too can utilize these lovely pieces to direct attention to other handsome features of your home—a fine mantel, a window arrangement, a handsome buffet, an elegant table.

LET us describe for you just a very few of the many bewitchingly picturesque articles we have for your selection.

MAGIC CIRCLES. Dainty three and four piece perfume sets with round or oval glass trays and mirror insets, with sparkling glass tapered bottles and powder puff or pin holders. A bouchar adornment in perfect taste.

STUDIES FROM LIFE. Fascinatingly lifelike figurines exquisitely modeled, appealing to both heart and eye. Boy musicians, girl with goose, an aged woman filling balloons, a manly logger, a girl raking leaves. The more you study them the more interesting they grow.

FOR DELICIOUS NIBBLES. Sugar cookies won't grow stale, won't last long either, in these mouth bewitching jars. Several highly ornamental designs and colors. Some have matching fruit bowls. Three amusing figurine styles are Peter the Chef, Katrina the Dutch Girl and Fritz Tuck the Monk. A hand in the jar, when filled with cookies, it worth two in the dishpan.

PLEASANT REFLECTIONS. Scintillating table mirrors if set with flowers or some of our amusing china miniature animals, will provide diversity, light and color for table centers. They come in either round or rectangular shapes, plain or etched, and have beveled edges. Sizes 12x24 or 14x26. They'll draw admiring words from family and guests.

FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVES. Character dolls about 11 inches high dressed in delicately fashioned and authentic national costumes. Gretchen of Holland, Freya of Sweden, Suette of France, Heather of Scotland and several others. You should meet them.

LUXURY ITSELF. The handsome mantel, the finest buffet, will be further enhanced by one of our many styles of high glass genuine china three piece console sets. Deep or shallow center bowls, side pieces of either candle holders or vases, all in several colors. We have them also in combination. You'll enjoy making your own pattern.

INDIVIDUAL CHARM. It would take many lines of type to give you even a faint idea of the variety of individual pottery and china pieces we display. Urns, vases, bowls, Godey plaques, miniature animals, jars, pitchers, plant holders, cigarette trays. To see them is the only way to picture them.

CRYSTAL DROPS. Unique 12 inch high lamps with round or square mirrored bases, the standard fashioned of delicate gilded wires with long center light bulbs included. From each gracefully curving wire hangs a sparkling glass pendant. So unusual they're bound to win universal acclaim.

Of course you will still find displayed on over 12,000 square feet of floor space our usual large assortment of attractive, dependable and reasonably priced furniture for every room in the house from occasional pieces to bedroom, living room and dining room suites.

IS YOUR METER READER IN THE 400

★ Almost 400 Consumers Power employees are on leave from their jobs and serving with the armed forces.

Some are meter readers — and that's one reason why meters are being read only every other month, instead of monthly.

Another is that automobiles, tires and gasoline must be conserved so you may continue to enjoy dependable utility service at your home and the place where you work. Perhaps the meter reader came to your house on foot, but still there were 100,000 miles of automobile travel involved in a single reading of all this Company's gas and electric meters on the farms and in the cities and villages of 58 Michigan counties.

We appreciate the spirit of cooperation our customers are showing in this wartime situation.
