

More Nurse's Aides Are Graduated

The sixth class of American Red Cross volunteer nurse's aides held its graduation exercises at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, Tuesday evening. Dr. John S. Lambie, of Birmingham, was the speaker.

This class will bring the number of volunteer nurse's aides serving in Oakland county to considerably more than 200 and their hours of service total more than 2,000 per month.

Those from Birmingham who have completed their course at St. Joseph Hospital are Mrs. Edward G. Costello, Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, Mrs. Herbert N. Steinberger,

Buckeridge Pupils To Present Recital

Stephanie Buckeridge will present the pupils of her dance studio in her fifth annual recital at the Birmingham Community House at 5 o'clock Friday evening, May 28. Tearing in age from three years to 16 years, about 50 pupils from Birmingham, Royal Oak, and Farmington Hills will exhibit their dancing ability in three acts of diversified technique.

The first act, "An Old Time Circus" will feature a variety of numbers in tap, Spanish, toe and ballet. A ring master will be impersonated by a young boy of three years.

"Hit Parade," as the title suggests, is built around tap, toe, and ballet numbers danced to current popular tunes. The concluding act, "White Christmas" will present all toe and ballet numbers. Stephanie Buckeridge will dance a toe solo in the last act; a toe dance in the opening act; and a Spanish number during one of the intermissions.

Following the recital, Stephanie's studio will be closed as she will enter Michigan State College next fall, bringing to a halt five years of teaching dancing in Birmingham and 15 years of studying dancing with the Borgo sisters, Dorothy Funk Miller, and Theodore Smith.

Ruth Minks, her classmate in the Senior Class at Baldwin High School, will accompany the pupils in the recital.

Eventful Weekend For Father and Son

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lewellen, of Pilgrim road, and sons, Doo and Bill, have just returned from Greenacres, Ind., where they attended graduation exercises at De Pauw University Sunday evening. Their son, Wendell, was one of those to receive his diploma at that time.

Mr. Lewellen is also a graduate of De Pauw University and a member of his son's fraternity, Delta Upsilon. Saturday was also the occasion of Mr. Lewellen's 24th class reunion. Twenty members of the class who came back, received their awards at the alma mater chapel services in the morning.

At the dinner Saturday evening, Mr. Lewellen, as a representative of the 1918 class, gave a talk to the 1918 and 1933 class members. President of De Pauw University, Dr. Clyde Everett Wildman, and Mrs. Wildman were guests at the dinner.

Wendell is a member of the Army enlisted reserve and expects to be called soon. Until then, he and his wife, the former Jane Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas, of Pilgrim road, will divide their time between their parents.

Forever

"BEAUTY" There's something more than just words in the phrase, "A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever." It is immensely significant that beauty is so largely responsible for our happiness; and that we react so naturally and favorably to a striking sunset, colorful flowers, or the blending of blues in the sky and lake of a water-scape. In choosing things for our homes, too, it is important to possess things of beauty, that they may truly be "A Joy Forever."

When lusty Knights fought armored war Beer was the cheer they clamored for.

The brewer then was not alert To close the vats to dust and dirt.

If flavor was a little flat He thought no less of it for that.

'He knew but little brewing science For rule-of-thumb was his reliance.

But as the centuries slowly ran We found a better brewing plan:

Here in Michigan, one happy morn The really modern beer was born.

In Altes—sealed from first to last— A brewing milestone had been passed!

For Altes is Dame Nature's brew; All clean and pure, it comes to you!

Pour a glassful—test the flavor— That's the taste that thousands favor!

Jean Alice Potter An Honor Student

Word was received by Miss Margaret Augur, head mistress of Kingswood School, that a former graduate, Jean Alice Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Potter, of Northlawn drive, had stood first in her class at Bryn Mawr College and as a result was presented with the James R. Rhodes Scholarship. Each year since her graduation from Kingswood, she has been named for series of high honors and scholarships.

Besides the scholarship award, Miss Potter was presented with the "Philosophy Stick" which has been handed down for years to important philosophers the college has turned out.

Beyond other "sticks" complete her collection, and she also was the recipient of a coveted "Hoop." Every Bryn Mawr girl hopes sometime during her college career to receive a "Hoop."

At yearly elections and appointments, Jean was elected a member of the intermediary committee, which acts between the faculty and students. She was elected president of the Philosophy Club and appointed to the literary staff of "The Lantern," the college literary publication.
