

Church Picnic Set In Hills Friday

berger, who are directing the program which will follow supper. Guests are to bring their own supper; coffee and dessert will be served.

In case of rain, supper will be served in the Guild Hall with the fun taking place in the Cranbrook gymnasium.

Several one-act plays are being planned; a barber shop quartet, consisting of Frederick G. Wood, the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, Fred M. Broock and Clark Bennett, is practicing strenuously, and a ladies chorus will sing. Members are Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, Mrs. William C. Sprull, Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. Brewster Shaw and Mrs. Boyce Ricketts. S. Gordon Saunders will be the accompanist. Mrs. Edward E. Chapman is directing a group of boys and girls who will also sing and among them are Margery Booth, Joan Grindley, Jean Beresford, Gloria Lane, Peggy Lind, Kitty Wallace, Nancy Lord, Betty Patterson, Ann Ballew, John Eden, Donald Gray, Bob Stewart, Ernest Staveley, Bill Kemp, John Dye, Dick Mixer, Don Taylor and Jack Hamel.

With current production of warplanes passing the 6,000-a-month mark, it is recalled that only one American-made airplane reached the fighting front in the first year of the last war.

'In Dance Performance Friday

'Golden Princess' Will Be Staged

The Allen-LaBelle Dance Studio, of Birmingham, will present its annual production of a three-act musical entitled "The Golden Princess" at 8:15 Friday evening in the Baldwin High School Auditorium. This recital will end the current season and new classes begin on June 15.

Barbara LaBelle, teacher of the class, studied with Theodore Smith and Theodore Fossell in New York, previous to her two years on the professional stage.

DBS-AO Dance Saturday Evening

The annual dance given jointly by the D.B.S. society and the A. O. fraternity will take place Saturday evening at the Community House. Ann Shars is chairman of the girls' group and Don Fisher, president of the fraternity, will be chief of the masculine crew for decorations.

Some of the "dates" already arranged are Don Fisher and Carolyn Byers, Nan Gilbreath and Tom Roth, Mary Welch and Bob Roth, Pat Daly and David Raymond, Jane Ray and Pat Patterson, Jean Blinn and Dick McConkie, Jane Dooks and Bob Murray, Ann Eastentine and Bud Keller, Jean Eddy and Wallace Ray, and Jean Wickoff and Edl Siegel.

In the first 12 months of the present war, 89,827 American troops were embarked for overseas duty as compared with 366,603 men in the same period of 1917-1918.
