Maybe He Should Have Waited Longer!

L'ANSE, May —Donald Y. McBeath, district game manager for the conservation department, has a new story for the sportsman's book of tall stories that are true. He reports that a predatory trapper, when unarmed, found a bobcat in one of his sets, and rather than tangle with the maddened animal, went home for his gun and shells. Returning, he found his anticipated $5 bounty had increased to $15 worth, as the trapped cat, in the meantime, had given birth to two kittens. 9

Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Demonstrated by the Arabian Nights and Modern Times, is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 30.
The Golden Text (Isaiah 59:21) is: "The Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (II Tim. 1:12): "And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."
Corrective passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 569): "He that touches the hem of Christ's robe and rejects his mortal beliefs, animality, and hate, receives in the proof of healing divine power and certain sense that God is Love."

Here's An Explanation

One of the boys back from Guadalcanal tells this one. Seems a Jap soldier (dead, of course) asked a Bluejacket why the American Navy always wins important engagements. The sailor replied: "That's because we pray before we start fighting."

But the Jap protested, "So do we."

"Yeah," said the sailor, "but who can understand you guys?"
