

Women's Colleges Sponsor Performance

This year seven women's colleges alumnae are sponsoring a theatre performance to benefit their scholarship funds. It will be the "Junior Miss" at the Cass Theatre.

The seven colleges represented are Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar, and Wellesley, whose alumnae are selling tickets and ushering at the performance. The proceeds will be used for the scholarship funds of these colleges who are doing such a splendid job training young women for all types of essential war jobs.

Bloomfield War Club

War Club leaders of the city and township of Bloomfield Hills are cooperating with the Council of Defense in making a survey of Consumer Interest. Every household and institution in the district is receiving a questionnaire on food, gardens, animals, laundry, chairs, housing, transportation, and miscellaneous possible needs.

The leaders urge recipients to fill out the questionnaire frankly and promptly and return to the club leaders by May 8. It is the wish of the Council of Defense to give all possible aid to civilians in the war emergency and by answering these inquiries, you can help the Council to help you.

CERTIFIED COLD FUR STORAGE

Standard Rates

How Lovely Your Furs Will Look AFTER A SUMMER IN DIMAS FURS

Cold Storage Vaults

How your furs are handled makes all the difference in the world! Here at Dimas' your furs are given individual attention by experienced furriers.

Every coat is examined carefully; is blown free of dust and dirt and placed in our Certified Cold Storage Vaults—where there is plenty of room around it to allow for free circulation of air!

Such care actually "Re-vitalizes" your coat... gives it...

New Beauty Longer Life!

DIMAS FURS

227 So. Woodward Ave. Birmingham Theatre Bldg. Phone 3040

Birmingham's only Exclusive Fur Store

Blackout Prompts Start of Program 15 Minutes Early

Due to the impending blackout tomorrow night, the concert which was planned by the Birmingham Junior Musical for 8:15 will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The program will include piano, voice, clarinet, trombone, and violin solos and also numbers by a vocal trio and chorus. Participants will be members of the Junior Musical whose president is Ruth Minks and whose counselor is Ruth Porritt. All performers are high school students.

The program is as follows: Ella Clark, Jeannette Stoeffgen, Sonata Second Movement, Haydn-Warum, Schumann; Doris Minks, Concerto, first movement, Scherz, Chopin; Robert Marsh, Andante Cantabile, Beethoven; Mary Jane Smith, Villanello, Dell'Acqua; Stephanie Buckner, Flamenco, Spanish air, chorus; Children's Prayer, Humperdink, Deep in My Heart, Romberg; John Matthews, On Wings of Song, Mendelssohn; Jean Kelly, Concerto, Scitiz; Charles Cox give a Man a Horse He Can Ride, O'Hara.

The program continues with Francis Buckner, Rigoletto, Bassi; Ruth Minks, Romance, Sibelius; Calvin Estes, My Journey's End, F. Scherz; Patricia Williams, Romance, La Forge; Thomas Fox, Lost Chord, Sullivan; Joan Parrish, and vocal trio, patriotic songs.

The trio consists of Gordon Cox, Ralph Appell, and Jack Milne. The chorus is made up of the whole membership.

Under the able supervision of Ruth Porritt, the Junior Musical has spent her time generously for her young friends.

Meeting at one of the members' homes every other week, the Junior Musical has had very interesting and enjoyable lectures climaxed by a presentation of the members' talents at each meeting.

Ruth Porritt

Junior Musical for 8:15 will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The program will include piano, voice, clarinet, trombone, and violin solos and also numbers by a vocal trio and chorus. Participants will be members of the Junior Musical whose president is Ruth Minks and whose counselor is Ruth Porritt. All performers are high school students.

The program is as follows: Ella Clark, Jeannette Stoeffgen, Sonata Second Movement, Haydn-Warum, Schumann; Doris Minks, Concerto, first movement, Scherz, Chopin; Robert Marsh, Andante Cantabile, Beethoven; Mary Jane Smith, Villanello, Dell'Acqua; Stephanie Buckner, Flamenco, Spanish air, chorus; Children's Prayer, Humperdink, Deep in My Heart, Romberg; John Matthews, On Wings of Song, Mendelssohn; Jean Kelly, Concerto, Scitiz; Charles Cox give a Man a Horse He Can Ride, O'Hara.

Streit-Culbertson Debate Scheduled

A debate between Ely Culbertson, exponent of world federation, and Clarence Streit, author of "United States of America," will be one of the features of the Toledo Forum on Peace Problems which several Birmingham members will attend Saturday and Sunday.

Those attending will include Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shan, Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Youker, Dr. and Mrs. John K. Ormond, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie.

Other speakers will include Sumner Welles, under secretary of state, and Dr. James T. Shortwell, of Colban University, and chairman of the Committee for the Study of the Organization of Peace.

A branch of this committee has been organized in Toledo, and one is now being organized in Detroit, with Mrs. Shan one of the prime movers. The Carnegie Foundation has made a grant of $50,000 to fund the work in Detroit; and Dr. David T. Henry, executive vice president of Wayne University, is Birmingham branch; Mrs. Shan is first vice-president.

Class Next Tuesday

The international E-L 10 class next Tuesday at 10 a. m. will be devoted to discussion of Dr. Edward Lindeman's Peace Institute here last Thursday.

Seeing Eye Group Hears Man Who Brought First Dog

Morris Frank, young Southerner who brought the first Seeing Eye dog to the United States 13 years ago, spoke Tuesday at a meeting of the Detroit Seeing Eye Membership Enrollment Committee, held to report progress of the two-week effort to secure a goal of 500 new members for the Seeing Eye in the Detroit area. Mrs. Harry D. Hoy, of Crangbrook, Bloomfield Hills, was hostess to the Bloomfield Hills-Birmingham Division.

It was the day after Pearl Harbor that the board of trustees of the Seeing Eye passed a resolution volunteering to provide, without cost, a guide dog to all eligible men of our armed forces who might become blinded in performance of duty.

Mrs. Harold A. Beatty is chairman of the Detroit Membership Committee with the following divisional chairmen: Mrs. William Gillespie, Indian Village; Mrs. Harry D. Hoy, Birmingham; Mrs. James B. Webber, Jr., Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Edward F. Wunsch, North End.

Vice chairmen of the enrollment are: Mrs. Frederick Smith, Mrs. Sally Chapin, Mrs. Ralph O. Jordan, Mrs. Frederick A. Kammer, Jr., Mrs. Ernest F. Kunk, Mrs. Charles E. Letts, Mrs. James McMillan, Miss Jewell Prentiss, Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, Mrs. William Lawrence Shaffner, George B. Storer, Mrs. David M. Sutter, and Miss M. Romayne Thompson.

WESTERN COLLEGE ALUMNAE

Alumnae of Western College, Oxford, Ohio, will be interested in the fact that Mrs. Alexander Thompson, president of the school, will participate in a radio broadcast Sunday at 3:30 p. m. emanating on a national hook-up from New York. The theme is Mother's Day, and Mrs. Alexander was asked to take part because she was recently voted the Mother of the Year.

TIRE EASILY?

Your SPENCER will rest you!

DOROTHY C. GRUBBS REGISTERED SPENCER CONSERVE

Phone B'ham 2683-M

KEYLO MARGARINE IS SURE FRESH AND FLAVOR-RICH

I'm the ideal spread for Any Bread—Use me to season Hot Vegetables, for Pan Frying, Baking or Seasoning

Candlelight Nuptials Unite Mary Mayfield and Mr. Root

At a ceremony solemnized Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Flint, Mary Elizabeth Mayfield, of West Maple avenue, became the bride of Bennett W. Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. W. Root, of Pierce street. The Rev. Otto Jackson officiated before an altar clad in white gladioli, palms, and amaranth leaves.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Mayfield, of Flint, wore a gown of white lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. The bouffant skirt of white satin under the lace, closed in a circular train. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a dainty white net Mary Stuart bonnet edged in seed pearls.

Carried Prayer Book

She carried a white prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom, with white roses tied to it from her mother's wedding bouquet, and sweetpeas caught in the shower ribbon.

The maid of honor was Virginia F. Mayfield, sister of the bride, a student at the University of Michigan School of Journalism. She wore a dress of aqua chiffon made with a fitted bodice, full skirt, and long full sleeves. Her hair was styled in a pale pink chignon along the bride's. She carried a colonial bouquet with aqua and pink ribbon.

Another sister of the bride, Jean Mayfield, of Flint, acted as bridesmaid in a pale pink chignon along the bride's. She carried a colonial bouquet with aqua and pink ribbon.

Richard Partridge, of Birmingham, acted as best man. Richard Partridge, of Birmingham, acted as best man.

Reception for 100

A reception was held in the church parlors for about 100 guests. The bridal table was centered with the tiered wedding cake flanked by crystal candelabra and garlands of smilax.

The couple left for a short honeymoon at Ann Arbor where they will attend the May festival concerts there. The bride wore a natural-colored covert cloth suit with an aqua blouse, aqua and brown hat, brown accessories, and a corsage of white roses.

Mr. Root is an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve, and the couple will make their home in Birmingham for the present time.

Gabardine RAINCOATS

A New Combination of Style, Comfort and Serviceability...

Many men have avoided wearing raincoats in the past because of their cumbersome materials and unflattering appearance. If that has been your case you'll welcome an opportunity to obtain one of these super-stylish coats. They look nice wherever and whenever you go and they are absolutely water repellent. You have wanted a coat like this for years and here's your chance to get one...

We have gabardine raincoats in several shades of tan. Some natural.

Some are lined with celanese and have a choice zipper or button fronts.

They are all cut full for comfort with large, roomy pockets too.

They are all cut full for comfort with large, roomy pockets too.

$995 to $1395

Boys' Sizes . . $5.95 to $8.95

These handsome raincoats come in exact duplicates for boys. Your boy will look fine in one and he will be able to wear it on many occasions. These coats are built to give real service, the kind of a coat boys need...

Mulholland's Men's and Boys' Departments

Prepare for Action . . .

Birmingham Clean-Up Week is May 17 to 22

Mrs. Hardig Becomes Sally Farquhar Bride of Officer at St. James Church

Monday, April 26, at 5:30 in the St. James Episcopal Church, Mrs. Mabel R. Hardig, of Birmingham, and Lt. Herbert W. Suter, of Hamilton, O., were married with the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating.

The couple was attended by Mrs. John A. Christopher and Ralph Forsyth. Following the ceremony, Lt. and Mrs. Suter left on a short trip to French Lick springs, Ind. Lt. Suter has returned to Wright Field, Dayton, O., where he is stationed with the Army Air Force. Mrs. Suter will remain at her home on 1033 Kennewave avenue.

MOMS to Hold Annual Election At Next Meeting

The MOMS Club is meeting on Thursday, May 13, for election of officers. They will also discuss plans for the big tea that will be given on May 20.

The MOMS Club asks that all mothers who contributed pictures of sons in service to the display during the past month in Sanders' Store, please call for them at the Defense Service Center. They would also like to thank all the mothers who willingly gave their pictures for the display.

It has also been announced that the MOMS of Birmingham have bought nearly $4,000 worth of bonds during the month of April. All MOMS are urged to continue registering their bonds by calling Mrs. Carol Plumstead at the Community House.

Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, state treasurer of the MOMS Club, will attend the state meeting being held in Detroit on Friday, Mrs. Robert F. Watt, president of the Birmingham Club, will attend the president's luncheon at the Statler Hotel on that day.

ANN ARBOR—One hundred high school seniors from every part of Michigan were notified yesterday that they had won Alumni Undergraduate Scholarships.

Antique Fair Will Start Friday, May 21, In Franklin Village

The ninth semi-annual Franklin Antique Fair in the old town hall in the Village of Franklin on Friday, May 21, Saturday, May 22, and Sunday, May 23, offers scores of traditional treasures of early pioneer days with which to furnish today's early American home. Some of the articles on sale will be furniture, china, glass, copper, brass, coverlets, prints, pictures, mirrors, and old firearms.

The fair being given by Franklin Antique Fair Association will be open from 11 o'clock in the morning to 2 p. m.

Mothers to Spend Sunday at Colleges

Denison University at Granville, Ohio, along with several other colleges is planning mother's day festivities. Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, of Aspen road, is leaving tomorrow to spend the weekend with her daughter, Mary, who is a student there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin, of Linden road, will also be spending the weekend at Denison where their son, Nicholas Martin, Jr., is a student. The F. A. Franklin, of Winthrop lane, whose daughter, Doris, is there, will also be going.

Mrs. Robert D. Lynd, of Fernald avenue, is leaving Saturday for Delaware, Ohio, where she will attend Monette Day at Ohio Wesleyan University. Her daughter, Lys Lynd, is working on one of the committees planning for the event.

The Classifieds—a bargain center!

Antique Fair Will Start Friday, May 21, In Franklin Village

The ninth semi-annual Franklin Antique Fair in the old town hall in the Village of Franklin on Friday, May 21, Saturday, May 22, and Sunday, May 23, offers scores of traditional treasures of early pioneer days with which to furnish today's early American home. Some of the articles on sale will be furniture, china, glass, copper, brass, coverlets, prints, pictures, mirrors, and old firearms.

The fair being given by Franklin Antique Fair Association will be open from 11 o'clock in the morning to 2 p. m.

Mothers to Spend Sunday at Colleges

Denison University at Granville, Ohio, along with several other colleges is planning mother's day festivities. Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, of Aspen road, is leaving tomorrow to spend the weekend with her daughter, Mary, who is a student there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin, of Linden road, will also be spending the weekend at Denison where their son, Nicholas Martin, Jr., is a student. The F. A. Franklin, of Winthrop lane, whose daughter, Doris, is there, will also be going.

Mrs. Robert D. Lynd, of Fernald avenue, is leaving Saturday for Delaware, Ohio, where she will attend Monette Day at Ohio Wesleyan University. Her daughter, Lys Lynd, is working on one of the committees planning for the event.

The Classifieds—a bargain center!

Last Meeting of Women's Club Held

Mrs. T. B. Smith and Mrs. W. H. Uptegraft were made life members of the Birmingham Women's Club at their last meeting held in the Community House on Tuesday.

The May breakfast opened with musical selections played by a brass sextet composed of members of the Baldwin High School Band. Following the breakfast, all annual reports of the club chairman and officers were given.

Mrs. Earl G. Potter took over the meeting as president and it was revealed that she is the first daughter of a past president to look that office. Her mother, Mrs. W. H. Uptegraft, was president several years ago.

Harriet Harwood, well-known book reviewer, gave some interesting reviews of recent books.

MOMS to Hold Annual Election At Next Meeting

The MOMS Club is meeting on Thursday, May 13, for election of officers. They will also discuss plans for the big tea that will be given on May 20.

The MOMS Club asks that all mothers who contributed pictures of sons in service to the display during the past month in Sanders' Store, please call for them at the Defense Service Center. They would also like to thank all the mothers who willingly gave their pictures for the display.

It has also been announced that the MOMS of Birmingham have bought nearly $4,000 worth of bonds during the month of April. All MOMS are urged to continue registering their bonds by calling Mrs. Carol Plumstead at the Community House.

Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, state treasurer of the MOMS Club, will attend the state meeting being held in Detroit on Friday, Mrs. Robert F. Watt, president of the Birmingham Club, will attend the president's luncheon at the Statler Hotel on that day.

Antique Fair Will Start Friday, May 21, In Franklin Village

The ninth semi-annual Franklin Antique Fair in the old town hall in the Village of Franklin on Friday, May 21, Saturday, May 22, and Sunday, May 23, offers scores of traditional treasures of early pioneer days with which to furnish today's early American home. Some of the articles on sale will be furniture, china, glass, copper, brass, coverlets, prints, pictures, mirrors, and old firearms.

The fair being given by Franklin Antique Fair Association will be open from 11 o'clock in the morning to 2 p. m.

Mothers to Spend Sunday at Colleges

Denison University at Granville, Ohio, along with several other colleges is planning mother's day festivities. Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, of Aspen road, is leaving tomorrow to spend the weekend with her daughter, Mary, who is a student there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin, of Linden road, will also be spending the weekend at Denison where their son, Nicholas Martin, Jr., is a student. The F. A. Franklin, of Winthrop lane, whose daughter, Doris, is there, will also be going.

Mrs. Robert D. Lynd, of Fernald avenue, is leaving Saturday for Delaware, Ohio, where she will attend Monette Day at Ohio Wesleyan University. Her daughter, Lys Lynd, is working on one of the committees planning for the event.

The Classifieds—a bargain center!

You're never too grown-up to Remember

MOTHER

Get Her One of These

SPRINGTIME CHARM IN MARIE DRESSLER DRESSES

Charm in clothes is a matter of lines . . . not of pounds. That's why so many smart women of generous proportions depend on Marie Dressler. There's real springtime charm in these tailored and dressy fashions in Bermuda Cloth (spun rayon broadcloth) and rayon Shantung, in festive new prints. 7.95

Classic gems of trim tailoring in plain color Romanes, Tampa Blue, Luggage, Buttercup, Catalina Rose, Ocean Turquoise, Navy. 8.95

HALF SIZES 36 1/2 to 52 1/2. For figures of average build and large hips.

QUARTER SIZES 25 1/2 to 51 1/2. For figures of still larger hips but smaller bust.

We wish to thank you in behalf of the A. W. V. S.

for your generous patronage of the WAR BOND AND STAMP booth which they conduct in our Store . . .

Buy Your Bonds and Stamps Here . . .

It Is Very Convenient

F. J. MULHOLLAND COMPANY

Member Retail Merchants Association

HEALTH FOR YOU!

Drink MOUNTAIN VALLEY MINERAL WATER

FOR SALE BY STROUP'S MARKET PHONE: 2800