

Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces, and parents, are invited to send news of the boys' whereabouts and activities. Service men scattered about the country, are hungry for news of their friends. Even the address of a newly-graduated, successful man is of interest.

Two Cents Daily
 When the rumors first spread that the New York Herald was for sale, William Randolph Hearst sent a cable to James Gordon Bennett, publisher of the Herald, which read: "Cable reply immediately: what price are you asking for the Herald?"
 Bennett called back: "Two cents daily—ten cents on Sundays!"
