Russian Ballet Theater, Dec. 2-5, Offers 3 Productions New to Detroit

Russian Ballet at its dazzling peak, by the Ballet Theatre, comes to Detroit at the Metropolitan Auditorium from Dec. 2 through Dec. 5. The coming visit brings three new productions by the authors of the most successful productions of the past season, "Mademoiselle Angot," "Pillar of Fire," and "The Fall of the House of Usher." The Russian Ballet Theatre is the first to present these new productions in the metropolitan world.

Among the new productions which the Ballet Theatre will bring with it this season are "Mademoiselle Angot," a comedy by Maurice Maeterlinck, first French Ballet since "Gaité Parisienne"; "Dim Lustré," by Antony Tudor who is famed for "Romeo and Juliet" of last season; and "The Fall of Sorochnak" by David Lichine who authored the hilarious "Helen of Troy."

Other ballets to be performed here are: "Swan Lake," "Pillar of Fire," "Romantic Age," "Les Sylphides," "Alek," "Peter, and the Wolf," "Opéra de Quatre," "Blue-

Bette Allen Weds Glenn MacPherson At R. O. Service

At a double ring ceremony performed by candlelight Oct. 29, Bette Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Allen, of Ann Arbor, Mich., was wedded to Glenn MacPherson, of Royal Oak.

The wedding service was read by the Rev. Mr. Stein, of the Royal Oak Presbyterian church, in the home of the bridegroom's grandmother.

For her wedding, Bette chose a street length dress of blue crepe with a braided effect at the waistline and on the bracelet length sleeves; her corsage was of pink carnations.

Bette Morrow, the bride, only attended a street length dress of blue crepe with a braided effect at the waistline and on the bracelet length sleeves; her corsage was of pink carnations.

There was a small reception following the ceremony. At 8 o'clock there was a large reception in the home of the bride's parents on Ann street. The couple honeymooned in Ohio and are now at home at 207 Rhode Island, Royal Oak.

Kappa Project Aids Society of Friends

Kappa Kappa Gamma's north suburban group held its monthly meeting at 1 o'clock Tuesday in the home of Mrs. D. Rogers, on Dorchester road. Mrs. Charles B. Fandall was the assistant hostess.

The afternoon was spent singing on clothing for the refugee children, who have been the relief project for this group. The project is being carried out under the sponsorship of the American Society of Friends.
