BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS

Hi Kids, Friday night certainly seem like Friday night without of football game.

Because Birmingham was rather quiet, Jan Coil, Bill Bones Franny Newell, Bob Warner, Nan cy Merriam, and Stan Schaeffe.

went to Detroit to paint the town red. They had dinner and went to a play at the Cass. Annie calls that class!

The Michigan-Ohio State game attracted quite a few Baldwin boys. Jim Coulter Tom Butters.

attracted quite a few Baldwin boys. Jim Coulter, Tom Butters, Tom Spiegel, Stan Ford, and Bill Thoms. Coach Helmer and part of his squad, Don Fisher, Carl Blauman, Bud Keller, and Bob Joyce, were there, too. This group, will attend the U of M Football Bust in Detroit this week-end.

Annie heard that Martina Mckinney spent the week end with Miggie Mead, while Don McLeese was the guest of Glenn White in Ann Arbor. They attended the game together.

saturday night there was another Saturday night dance. It seemed as if it got started pretty late; but when it did, things began to swing! Pretty Barbara Fox

From the first day of every Bir mingham football season all thoughts stray to that final Acorn Maple encounter on Thanksgiving Day. The rivalry of these two teams is one of the oldest in the state having lasted nearly 56 years—32 of them scheduled games.

With a few exceptions Birmingham and Royal Oak's rivalry has been a very enjoyable one with both schools and both communities displaying good sportsmanship no matter what the outcome of the Beat Royal Oak! is the battle cry which is echoed and re-echoes year after year in the ears of the Maple stalwarts from the very be giming of the season. Every Maple warrior wants to win an plays to win whatever the odds And pregame dope means less than nothing when these two teams meet.

The scason so far has been fair. The Maroons regained the TVAA crown by losing to only one league opponent and holding the rest scoreless. They have won the fairly special series of the series of th

Now it remains only to win the Turkey Day game and the "Little Brown Jug" to call this 1943 one a successful season.

This is Coach Hal Helmer's first season at Baldwin and he has produced a TVAA championship team.

We surely hope that he's the man to coach the team to its first victory over Royal Oak in ten years. (In the ten years are several ties for the Maples—but no
