

A.A.U.W. West Side Group Too Large

The two book groups of A. A. U. W. continue their literary pursuits next Monday, Nov. 8, the West Side meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Scheel, 847 Waddington. Co-hostesses are Mrs. E. C. Gill and Mrs. Ward Bandol. Mrs. James Brown will give the review. East Siders meet at Mrs. Hugh White's on Charing Cross road. Mrs. Palmer will assist the hostesses and Mrs. E. D. Merriam will be the entertainer. The vesting problem of what to do about the too-large West Side group has been solved in a very simple way: by letting any who want to come over to the smaller book club on the other side of Woodward. All of those just over the border are especially urged to change.

Elizabeth Richey Weds Sgt. McIntyre Saturday Evening

Wearing a gown of bridal pink satin, Elizabeth Leigh Richey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig H. Richey, of Arlington drive, became Mrs. Sgt. Gordon Edward McIntyre, of Puritan road, entertained at a cocktail party in her home last Sunday, honoring Mr. Ebberts, brother and wife, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur B. Ebberts, who were their weekend guests.

Those who were at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Burgess, Chas. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Doeg, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ramin, Lt. and Mrs. George Mars and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson.

—Hostess Portrait Mrs. Gordon Edward McIntyre

the bride of Sgt. Gordon Edward McIntyre, ASTP son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance McIntyre, of Mason, Mich., Saturday, Oct. 30, at 8:30 o'clock.

The service, which was read by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, was at the St. James Episcopal church. The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with bouquets of large white chrysanthemums.

Elizabeth, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a heavy satin gown of bridal pink, fastened with a simple bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The gored skirt fell in a light train in back. She wore a matching Juliet cap with pink baby mums on either side holding in place her finger-length veil. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses, sweet peas and baby mums. Her sister, Margaret, was her only attendant, wearing a gown of green tulle designed with a tight bodice, braided-length sleeves and a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of fast mums which matched her Juliet cap.

Seaman Glenn Dunn, of Mason, was best man and the ushers were Robert Reese of Rochester, Mich., and Pvt. Milton Reeder, of Evansville, Ind.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

For traveling, Elizabeth wore a suit of brown galatrine, with a matching hat, a beige coat with a fur collar completed the ensemble. Her accessories were brown.
