

How many boys from BIRMINGHAM won't come back?

NOBODY knows the exact number. Nobody. But—

The number who do come back—on their own two feet instead of in a flag-draped box—will be in exact proportion to the job we do here at home.

For every minute that we can help shorten the war will mean more lives saved. (213 Americans were killed in the final day of the last war, and 1,114 were wounded before the 11:00 o'clock Armistice took effect.)

Now one way all of us can help shorten the war is to tighten our belts and buy more War Bonds. Yes, still more. And...

If you think you're buying all the War Bonds you are able to, imagine—for a minute—that it's after the war...

... you're standing at the station ... a bunch of home-town boys, still in uniform, climb off the train... one of them kisses his wife and grabs his kid in his arms...

... and then he turns to a young woman beside them; a girl who looks like his wife's sister, and you overhear him say...

"Catherine, I don't know how to tell you how sorry I am... it's such a shame about Joe... it makes me sick all over when I think how he'd be here today if the war had only ended a week sooner."

Think it over. Can't you buy a few more War Bonds to help end the war that week or month sooner? Sure, it may mean giving up something, but what's that compared to what they're giving up? And remember, always—The money you "can't spare" may spare a soldier's life!
