BLACK WOODCHUCK SIGHTED

EWEN, Oct. 7—A glimpse of a rare completely black woodchuck has been reported by District Supervisor John Steinmetz and C. A. Paquin, chief of the Conservation Department's education division.

The rare specimen was seen on the road between Ewen and Wakefield. Department game men declare that albino woodchucks are fairly uncommon, but melanistic specimens are exceedingly rare, and are seldom seen by any one.

Educational

"Yes, stamp collecting is educational," said the fond mother to the visitor. "For instance, where is Hungary, son?"

Without looking up from his stamp book, the young collector answered promptly: "Two pages in front of Italy."
