

Baldwin Hi Students Asked to Register

All students who will be attending Baldwin High School for the first time who did not make out schedule of classes last spring are being asked to register at the High School office between the hours of 9 and 12 on Tuesday, Sept. 7, to Friday, Sept. 10, according to an announcement by Ross A. Wagner, Principal.

Also, Mrs. Carol Darling, girls' counselor, and Lloyd Chapman, boys' counselor, will be in their offices between the hours of 9 and 12 on Tuesday, Sept. 7, to Friday, Sept. 10, to make schedule adjustments. All students who have been in summer school or who received failing grades last semester are requested to report to the office of the Commissioners for schedule adjustments.

LATHRUP TOWNSITE MEETING

Questions and answers relating to the conduct of smaller units of government will be given to Lathrup Townsite residents Monday night, September 13, at 8:30 o'clock, when Samuel B. Revere will address them in the Annie Lathrup school. The public is invited to attend this free discussion.

'Summer 'Y' Camp Near Hale Biggest Since 1931—Lynd

Camp Mahng-go-tah-see (Oakland County Y. M. C. A. Camp)

Camp Mahng-go-tah-see, the Oakland County Y. M. C. A. camp, closed its current season Thursday of last week after a very successful season. Some three hundred boys, filling over 800 boy weeks, were campers during the season. Over 100 of these boys came from the vicinity of our city.

Among those who stayed for the whole season were Jerry Maynard, Dwight Allen, Bill Mainland, Kenneth Denham, John Mackay, David Fletcher, Jack and Jimmie Wigden, Walter McPhail, and Dan Akers. Other boys from Birmingham who returned home last week were Warren Wood, Robt. Bates, Dan Pyle, Ed Simetz, Cort Rowles, Bill Wilkinson, Boyd Landry, Frank Perkin, and Bill Elliott.

The counselors and other members of the staff who returned were Fred Jeffers, Bob King, Dave Wangberg, Bob Jessup, Miles Robinson, E. A. Hubbard, Mrs. Arthur Wigerden, and the director, Robt. Lynd. Mrs. Lynd and Elizabeth Lynd, Mr. and Mrs. J. Spence returned Wednesday after spending a week at camp. Mr. Spence helped with the sailing program.

According to Mr. Lynd, the director, the number of boy weeks was the largest since the season of 1931. Many boys were turned away because of lack of space. Among the more popular activities were sailing, fishing, boating, archery, handicraft, swimming, hiking, short trips, overnight sleep outs, horseback riding, camp fires, singing, movies, and games.

A new activity, not too popular with the boys, was the camp garden. Every boy in camp during July worked in the camp garden for about three hours a week. During August, green beans, radishes, lettuce, peas, turnips, beets, and cucumbers were used on the camp menu. Tomatoes, potatoes, rutabaga, carrots, beets, and pumpkins are to be harvested later and sold or stored for next season.

Even the camp director borrowed a two-horse cultivator and cultivated the garden on several different occasions.

Some of the campers helped nearby farmer put in hay, gathered some hay for the camp horses, helped to repair a barn for the dropout, and did other jobs.

Hale Folks Cooperated

Mr. Lynd states that the folk around the little town of Hale near where the camp is located were very cooperative in helping to make the camp go in a difficult year. One man got up in the middle of the night to lace the pump belt in order to insure a water supply. Another provided the camp with enough oats for the horses at a very nominal price. The East Ta was High School loaned their sound movie projector for the season and the Hale folk loaned an extra bulb for the machine when one burned out. This was later replaced with a new one. A neighbor woman sold about 40 dozen eggs a week to the camp, and on one occasion when the director was hurrying some supplies to camp for the noon meal and his car broke down, the local grocer yielded, "Take my car. Here is the key."

"These are indications of the true American spirit and the objectives of this sort of spirit into the lives of the boys," said Mr. Lynd.

Detrotter Pleads Not Guilty

Milton Lewis, 35, of 8095 Whiteside, Detroit, was arrested for reckless driving at 6 a. m. last Sunday morning by Officer Melvin Holmquist, at Woodward and Maple avenues. Lewis was taken to the Birmingham Police Department and held until 8:30 a. m. when he was released after pleading to appear before Municipal Judge Forbes S. Hascall on Monday morning. Lewis pleaded not guilty to the charge and was released on $50 bail after Judge Hascall had set September 7 as the date for his trial.

As I've said in every other letter, as soon as I get a letter from you people I'll know what to write because I can build a letter around your questions.

So long, as ever, MICKEY.

Misses Letters

Another day has gone by with mail calls and I've yet to receive my first letter. Until you're away from home, with total strangers and not even a paper from which you can find out what's happening at home, you can't possibly receive what a simple letter or postcard can mean.

I don't know how busy you or Dad or Bob are but surely you can give me a letter acknowledging you're still all in one piece. I've written more letters in the past week than I have in a year and I have less time than ever so how about those letters.

If you have been writing every day right along then just disregard this message. But keep in mind I mean what I've said.

Love, MICKEY.

Friday, August 13, Afternoon. Dear Mom:

I just got my first letter just 5 minutes ago. You can't possibly read the wonderful feeling that came over me when I opened that letter. I hope you'll excuse my last letter, but that's exactly the way I felt.

Today we learned some drill tactics that I had never seen before in my life. We drilled from 7:45 until about 10:30, but I loved it. It really makes a fellow feel swell to see how he does his work properly. Never a day goes by without saluting some and it's

I'm sending a cheap picture

I've had taken but there will be pictures in the camp catalogues that are lower than low. I'm clear down to 86 to last the rest of the month.

Fancy Room

From what I've been able to gather, they're moving our hotel and the headquarters toward the beach somewhere. That will be hell because we've got the best room in our hotel; it has almost as much window space as wall paper and our luck can't possibly hold out long enough to get us another room like this.

Tell your folks I'd like a letter or two, and send that picture of me in the bathing suit down to me. Tell Dad and Mrs. Lynd I'll have to make this one letter do for all.

There is probably more I should write but I don't seem to be able to think of anything that isn't restricted. So keep writing fast and often.

Cool. Bless You, MICKEY.

program which required considerable explaining, we are happy to join in an exchange of games with nearby schools which is entirely within the regulations of O.P.D.

Paul Berger, Football Coach for Cranbrook School, announced today that five games have been scheduled as follows:

October 1st, Romeo High at Cranbrook, 3:30 p. m.
October 8th, Oxford at Cranbrook, 3:30 p. m.
October 23rd, open date, October 23rd, Casson High School, 3:30 p. m.
November 5th, open date, November 12th, Birch High School of Centerville, Michigan, 3:30 p. m.

A game is also being negotiated with St. Mary's at Orchard Lake and this may be played on October 23rd, or November 5th. The School is open for one or two more games.

Will Use Stadium

All games this season will be played at the Cranbrook Stadium against Class B teams only.

until 3 p. m. until school starts. Full uniforms are issued each boy as he reports, not that contact work will commence at once, but to get every one used to working with full pads as quickly as possible.

Helmert is noted for his precise practices and for demanding near perfection in all fundamentals and play execution. It has been his method in the past to not overburden his players with an overabundance of fancy tactics until they have completely mastered a sound game of football.

Included in the squad are the following:

- Saturday, September 18—GROSSE POINTE There—2:00 p. m.
- Friday, September 24—EAST DETROIT Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, October 1—WAYNE Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, October 8—EORSE Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, October 15—PLYMOUTH Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, October 22—YPSILANTI Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, October 29—DEARBORN Here—8:00 p. m.
- Friday, November 12—FERRISLE Here—8:00 p. m.
- Thursday, November 25—ROYAL OAK Here—10:30 a. m.

since the registration of this school approximates that classification in the State public school regulations.

Cranbrook School for the 1943 season, is not too optimistic about his material for the coming year since there are only two letter men returning around whom to build a new team. These boys are: Charles Otto, tackle from Birmingham and Jack Rex, an end, from Detroit. The rest of the team will be made up of last year's junior varsity boys, varsity reserves and new students.

Coach Berger played football at Iowa State College, winning his letter in 1932, 1933 and 1934. For his first two years he played at the tackle position and in his senior year earned national reputation as a guard. He received All-American Honorable Mention in the Associated Press selection in 1934.

The interest is keen among students and faculty this year because it is the first time they have been able to compare competitive qualities of their teams with local public schools in a full season's schedule.

Likes America Best

Caurea has no desire to go back to Belgium after the war is over. "There is no place like America," he says. "It is the best of all the countries in the world. Here a man can work hard and have a car. Back in Belgium we had no luxuries and no rights. This is the best."

A citizen since last June, Henri Caurea celebrated his new status by buying a $500 war bond. He has bought a bond every month since Pearl Harbor and now has over $1,500 worth. To him this is not just a good business investment but a means of helping.

A brother who was visiting in Belgium was caught at the outbreak of the late war, taken by the Germans who confiscated his passport, and finally died after returning to this country in 1915.

Two weeks ago he also did another service to his new country by donating a pint of blood to the American Red Cross.

Henri Caurea works as a custodian at The Birmingham Eccentric. He has made it his business to be ailingly bright blue eyes. His faith is strong and imperishable. He wants this country to win and he is doing his best to help it.

Mr. and Mrs. Caurea live at 371 Townsend.

which is to be held at the Community House on Wednesday evening, September 15, at 8 o'clock. This is open to all Victory Gardeners, or anyone interested and the speaker is to be Professor O. L. Grigg of Michigan State College. Contest prizes will be awarded at that meeting also.

Harvest Show Announced

It was also announced by Mrs. McGallum that the South Oakland Victory Garden Harvest Show is to be held in the Oakland County Community Market building on September 11 and 12. The Victory Garden chairman reminded all concerned that the winners there will be eligible for the state contest later on this month. Detailed schedules for the Harvest Show are available now at committee headquarters at 131 Pierce street in Birmingham.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Curry, of 1811 Villa road, announce the birth of Diane Bonita, born Aug. 13.

following lettermen from last season: Carl Blazman and Don Fisher, regular tackles last season; Dick Dunn, regular end; Frank Watts, regular quarterback; Bud Keller, regular halfback; Harold Kelley and Pat O'Connor, who both won their monograms at backfield positions. Besides these, Dick McConkie, Bob Joyce and Tom Spence saw some service in the varsity.

Recapping Won't Wait!

You can have your tires recapped only if you don't wait too long. Because when you permit a tire to wear down too thin, it CAN'T be recapped. It's fit only for scrap—and that's just a waste of rubber that could have been saved by recapping in time! And a waste of thousands of more miles you could get out of your tire . . . by recapping in time!

You can't tell when it's time to recap, unless you're a tire expert. Drive around—and let us tell you how your tires are wearing—and WHEN TO RECAP for the longest mileage, and for rubber saving economy.
