Rubeck-Spurlock Wedding Announced

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rubeck, 450 East Brown, of the marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Floyd Leonard Spurlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spurlock, of Avon Park, Florida.

The wedding took place on Saturday Sept. 11, in the St. James Episcopal church, with the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The bride left on Monday for their honeymoon in Florida. They will make their home somewhere in this vicinity.

Porritt-Moore Rites Oct. 9th

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Porritt, of South Adams road, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to James Freeland Moore, Chief Petty Officer, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil W. Moore, of Kirklint, Ind. The couple plan to be married at a home wedding Oct. 9, at 4 p. m. The Rev. Glenn C. Harris will officiate.

Ruth's sister, Loretta, now Mrs. John H. Finn, of New York, will be her matron of honor. Her sister, Dorothy, and James' sister, Miriam, will act as bridesmaids. James' father will be his best man.

Ruth attended Marygrove College and Oberlin Conservatory. James is a graduate of Wabash College, Ind. Ruth is a member of the A. A. U. W., The Village Players, Thursday Musical and has been counsellor for the Junior Musical for several years.

Barbara Brooks Becomes Bride

Barbara Brooks, daughter of Mrs. Charles Brooks, of Ann Arbor, and the late Mr. Brooks, became the bride of Lieut. Clayton E. Brelsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Brelsford, 212 Placina road, in Ann Arbor last Saturday at 4 p. m. at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Charles W. Brashares officiated.

Ivory lace was chosen by the bride for her wedding dress. Her ivory tulle veil extended over the train and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and white gladioli.

A former classmate of the bride, Doris Pelich, of Cleveland Heights, O., was the maid of honor. She wore a tailored frock of pink organza. Identical frocks were worn by the bridesmaids, Dorothy Burke and Martha Farnell, Ann Arbor friends of the bride, and two sisters of the bridegroom, Elizabeth Brelsford and Mrs. Rolland Langerman, of Birmingham. They carried sprays of gladioli blossoms and wore chaplets of the same flowers in their hair.

Fred Boynton, of Adrian, was his brother-in-law's best man. He was Lieut. A. Shanley Ross, Camp McCook; John McKee, Birmingham; and two Ann Arbor friends, Christian Everhardt and George Burke, Jr.

Ruth's sister, Loretta, now Mrs. John H. Finn, of New York, will be her matron of honor. Her sister, Dorothy, and James' sister, Miriam, will act as bridesmaids. James' father will be his best man.

AWVS Bond Sales Staff Increased

Mrs. Robert Q. Bruce, Chairman of the AWVS theatre bond and stamp selling staff, announces that the following new volunteers have been added to the group: Phyllis Keenan, Mrs. Marvin G. Kirm, Olive Robinson, Alice Stauffer and Mrs. Paul E. Romoser.

During the Third War Loan Drive the theatre staffs have been making a special effort to increase the number of volunteers, thereby increasing the amount of bond and stamp sales. The booths are staffed every evening and Saturday and Sunday afternoons and it is hoped that during the rest of the month theatre goers will make a point of buying even more stamps and bonds at these booths.
