 Chester and Willis Streets
 Church each Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday at 2 p. m.
 Reading will be the subject of the Lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 27.
 Golden Text (Isaiah 54:4) is: "Since the beginning of the world men have not had, nor received by the one, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him."
 Among the Bible citations in this passage (John 3:4): "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."
 Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: L. 117. "The individuality of man is no less tangible because it is spiritual and because his life is not of the mercy of matter. The understanding of his individuality makes man more real, more formidable in truth, and enables him to conquer the disease and death."

Complaint Dept.
 Finding himself in a third-class railway carriage after he had bought a first-class ticket, Charles Joseph, Silvertown, a farmer, of Burford, Oxford, pulled the communication cord and stopped the train. He complained of the inefficiency of the railway staff in directing him to the third-class compartment. — London Daily Mirror.

Young Gardeners Exhibit Produce

Fall colors in vegetables and canned produce ran riot at the Harvest Festival, held in the Community House last Friday afternoon.

The judges considered the results of the student exhibit to compare favorably with any adult exhibit of the kind previously held.

Entries in the contest were made by 175 Victory Gardeners. Following the judges' awards the Community House was opened to visitors.

The judges were Mrs. Lee J. Lynn, Mr. Paul Carter, Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mrs. C. Crockett, and Mrs. Atwood B. Outman.

The following students were awarded flowering crab trees by the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club. The produce was judged according to exhibit material and garden qualities.

Adams School: Ginny Dudley, Harry Prantz, Barnum School: Bill Larsen, Jane Abbott, Holy Name: Vincent Hayes, Ruth Ann Kellar, Brookside: Toby Maxwell, Barbara Barker, St. Hugo's: Kenneth Burr, Deiores Smith, Vaughn School was awarded trees for a group project, including a miniature roadside stand in a Vitamins and canned goods.
