Michigan Colors Prominent at Tea

Michigan colors will be prominent at the University of Michigan Alumnae tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Atkinson, on Shirley drive, from 3 to 5 p. m. today.

The table will be set with a white linen cloth with venetian lace insets. A large bowl of yellow mums and tall blue tapers placed in silver candelabra will carry out the color scheme of blue and yellow.

A business meeting will be held, at which time the officers for the coming year will be elected, membership fees will be collected, and announcement will be made of the Regents Scholarship recipients.

Mrs. Martin A. Wendell will be a guest at the tea. She will talk on antique glass, and identify any old piece of glass that the guests may care to bring with them.

Mrs. Robert Watt, who is chairman of the tea, has chosen Mrs. L. B. Sappington and Mrs. D. L. Tate to pour.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Holds First Meeting

The North Suburban Group of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority held its first meeting of the current year at the home of Mrs. M. E. Mallender, on Aspen road, Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Betts was cohostess with Mrs. Mallender.

The Birmingham women who were present at the meeting were Mrs. Joseph Torrence, Mrs. N. Weir Burkman, Mrs. E. J. Barney, Mrs. Charles Randall, Mrs. Max Coulter, Mrs. J. C. Stephens, Mrs. Fred Keller, Mrs. Robert Halstead, Mrs. Richard Campbell, Mrs. Joseph Bowen, and Mrs. James D. Rogers. Mrs. John Dorsey, Detroit president, and Mrs. L. C. Johnson, of Buffalo, were guests.

The group will be hostesses to the Detroit Association at the home of Mrs. Fred Keller, Wing Lake, Oct. 12. The program will be in honor of their Founder's Day.

The theme of the program for the year will deal with the different countries in the world, where the American soldiers are stationed.

The subject for the meeting next Tuesday will be, "Sicily in the Limelight." Mrs. Mathew Cammarer will tell of her experiences during a three months trip made to Sicily in 1929, and will compare conditions with those encountered in a more recent trip made in 1938.

Mrs. Earl G. Potter

Mrs. Elbridge G. Newhall will relate her experiences during a trip which she made with Mr. Newhall to Italy in 1931. She will show her scrap books. Both women toured through the country and can tell details of the home life and customs of the people.

The tea will be served by the members of the Executive Board, with Mrs. William O. Merrill as chairman.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop ten, whose leaders are Barbara Fletcher and Betty Steffee, will meet in the Girl Scout Room at the Community House on Thursday evenings at 7:30. Any girl in the eighth or ninth grades who is interested in scouting is urged to attend.

Troop nine, of Walnut Lake, met last week and elected the following officers. Treasurer, Gwendolyn Kemp; Scribe, Patricia Parkins; Red Cross leader, Jacqueline Peluso; and Public Relations chairman, Mary Haskins. The troop elected Emma Young and Janet Thorne for carrier and colorguard for the American flag and Joan Peluso and Jean Smith for carrier and colorguard for the Troop flag. Barbara Wilson will be the custodian of the scrap book.

The leader of Troop nine is Mrs. E. L. Kahn, who is assisted by Mrs. M. F. Thorne. In addition to the regular scout meetings this troop works on Red Cross bandages every Tuesday evening; in answer to a request by the Red Cross chairman.

Naval Officers To Attend USO Benefit Dance, Sat.

Of interest to those who are following the progress of the plans for the U. S. O. Benefit Dance to be held Saturday night at the Birmingham Golf Club, will be the news that 13 Naval officers and their wives, and about 20 other Naval officers from Pontiac will be in attendance at the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith, of Washington Blvd., are entertaining a group of their friends at cocktails before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Overshultes, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Palmers, Mr. and Mrs. Clark D. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Moyes, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. Clelland B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scott Warren, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey deMeules, will be their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Sutton, Jr., on Woodland Villa Court, will have another group in for cocktails preceding the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hadas, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Waterman, of Detroit, will be among those invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip F. deBeaubien will have a few guests at their home on West Lincoln, before going to the dance. They will be Lt. Campbell Brigham and Mr. and Mrs. Richard deBeaubien.

Two other parties will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wagoner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Burgess.

The final arrangements will be completed at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Mrs. Donald T. Maentz, this evening.
