Student Congress Is Termed 'Capable'

Baldwin's Student Congress held its opening meeting last Thursday. The new officers are Bill Garfield, president; Sally Mook, secretary; and Dorothy Scott, treasurer.

Congress started off the new year with the appointment of a court committee which is to see that every new student in school is acquainted with Baldwin's students and program. Noon hour recreation is completely handled this year by the students, with an extensive program of games. Plans are also being made to cooperate with the junior defense council on the war bond and stamp sales.

Mrs. Mary Hartwick and Mrs. Carol Darling, advisers, agree that this year's Congress is very capable. The members: Twelfth grade: Ralph Coryell, Virginia Postwick, Janet Zinner, Betty Lou Thurman, Charles Matthews, Mary Jane Bell, Patty Peabody, Ed Brungaber, Stanton Clarke, Jeanne Wilkens, Nancy Neumann, and Don McLessee.

Eleventh Grade: Tom Cokerly, Charles Coley, Peggy Metcalf, Bill McCall, Mary Quinn, Donna Polyzynski, Ruth Harrell, Ted Mansfield, John Foley, Polly Hanson, Shirley Smith, Herb Herzberg, Molly Weller, and Tom Woodhouse.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS
Hi Kids—
Good old Baldwin came back with a bang, winning its first home game after the Groose Pointe loss. The kids certainly were enthusiastic, and Miss Hansen wasn't to be outdone by anyone. She was even trying to figure out what hold she had on each player.

What a crowd! Among them Annie saw Martha Postwick and Bud Daeschner, whom were Mary Quinn and Bruce Saunders.

Puppy Nancy Richter, Dean McAllister, Dawn Holgin, and Tom Kitter were seen skipping down the track during the half.

On the way to Shain's after the game Harold Kelley was seen with four women, and Annie heard he was a woman hater! Annie must have heard wrong. Battling into Shain's (poor Shain's after a football game!) saw Mary Jane Tuttle and Bob Garfield. Noticed Juanita Pearson and Dick Darr trying to get away from it all.

Something new and different came off Saturday afternoon. A group of Birmingham boys and girls, guests of Annie Sanders, went sailing on the lake at dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club followed. Eight couples were there. Annie's team were Mary Welch, Conway Adams, Rachel Kinn, Tom Roth, Barbara White, Wally Roy, and Annie's team were Mary Welch, Pete Gahn, Jeri Lou Smith, Jim Vaughn, Sally Booth, Bing Murray, Nancy Neumann, Charlis Matthews, and Nancy Sanders with Bob Little.

Saturday night Connie Buty and Frank Wangberg (Baldwin's popular alumni) were seen strolling homeward hand in hand. Annie couldn't figure out which were the brightest, the stars or their eyes. The two boys, Joyce and Jessup, escorted Dawn Holgin and Di Roosevelt, respectively, to the movies.

Until next week. ANNIE.

12-A OFFICERS

Organizing for their last semester at Baldwin, the 12-A's elected their final class officers with Fred Zoellin as president; Mary Jane Tuttle, treasurer; Barbara Foster, secretary.

The vice presidency will be filled by two students, Sue Burnside and Nina Kalbfus. This is due to a tie in the voting; so the entire graduating class voted to elect the two girls co-vice presidents.

Although one of the smallest graduating classes, this group has many prominent students, 12-A's being active in athletics, publication, clubs, and Student Congress, as well as in the classrooms.

Daddy—Yes, son, I recall that it was at a party where there were 13 at the table.

Cranbrook Plays Romeo Friday, 3:30

Cranbrook School resumes interscholastic athletics Friday at 3:30 p. m. when the Crane Eleven will play Romeo High at the Cranbrook Stadium. This is the first interscholastic contest in which Cranbrook School has engaged since withdrawing from the Interstate Preparatory School League.

For the first time in history, Cranbrook School has arranged a line-up for the game. The line-up is: Charlie Otto, tackle, and the only returning letter man, was injured in practice last week and may be out for the season.

The end positions may be held down by Paul Fletcher of Bloomfield Hills and Eugene Harbeck of Grand Haven. Mib, Andre Roulet of Birmingham and John Shuell of Bloomfield Hills are also making strong bids for berths at the end positions.

Bill Richter and Chris Smith will probably start at tackle with Goodman and Stewart ready for early substitution. The guard positions will be played by Steve Giffels of Birmingham with heavy competition on the other side of the line among Kelly, Knox and Marcell.

The pivot position will be played by Doug Mott of Birmingham with Bill Kay of Pontiac ready to relieve him. Quarterback honors will be shared by Julian Hutton of Grand Haven and Bob Shutes of Detroit.

The remaining back-field posts are well covered by Tom Dickinson of Birmingham and Larry Tucker of Birmingham, with Upper, Wilson and Shives in reserve.

Clubs Get Schedule
The Maple's 1943 football schedule will be issued tomorrow before the Birmingham vs. Wayne game to all students and members of the Lions, Exchange and Rotary Clubs.

Staff members for the little publication are Dor McLessee, manager; Sue Burnside, Mary Jane Tuttle, Tom Milderbrandt and Jane Dadds, assistants.

Betty Lou Thurman designed the attractive Maple leaf cover.

The pocket size card will contain the schedule of games, players' numbers and positions, cheerleading staff, and the Birmingham Marching Song.

Maples Seek to Avenge Last Year Tie with Wayne

By TOM ALLEN
Two main objectives will be in the minds of the Birmingham High School gridder when they take the field against Wayne this Friday night at Pierce Field, the first, to win their second straight game; and second, to avenge last season's 6-6 tie.

After trailing by a 6-0 score for most of the game and having two touchdowns called back for penalties, the Maroons finally edged the score in the last period on a sleeper play in which Bud Keller passed the ball to Bill Golling for the marker. The Maroons are out to make sure that no such last minute score is necessary to salvage this year's contest.

According to Coach Dale Butler of Wayne the same starting team that won last year's game will be used. This line-up includes four letter-men back from last season's squad.

In all probability Baldwin's Coach Hal Helmer will start the same team which defeated Eastbrook Friday. They are end, Dick Dunn; tackles, Carl Blauman and Don Fisher; guard, Bob Joyce; quarterback, Frank Wayne; and Harold Kelley; halfback, Pat O'Connor, and fullback, Bud Keller.

Girls' League Helps Baldwin Newcomers

To acquaint the new girls of Baldwin High School with faculty, students and all activities, the Girls' League held a picnic supper Tuesday evening at the Community House. There were 225 on hand.

Each new girl was accompanied by a "big sister" from the upper grades. Faculty members and club members who furnished the food and acted as hostesses. Faculty introductions and brief summaries of various Baldwin student activities followed supper.

The Girls' League and Girls' State were represented by president, Jackie Buck; G. A. A. by president, Polly Hansen; National Honor Society, president, Sue Burnside; Student Congress, vice president, Patty Price; Publications, Jane Dadds and Mary Jane Tuttle; music, Mary Jane Stevens; assembly club, Nina Kalbfus; art, Teddy Thompson; and Dramatics, Martina McKinley, who also gave a reading of "The Walls".

Patty Peabody was program chairman, Dorothy Seett and Gerry Flynn were in charge of table arrangements. Entertainment was provided by Mary Jane Stevens and Joanne Chapel, pianists, Joanne Elton, Carolyn Byers, and Barbara Fox, who gave a skit; and Joan Sappington and Doris Murray who composed a song about the new 10's sung by seniors.

ANOTHER THRILLING CHAPTER
"THE BATMAN"

DEAR BILL:

"... I'm in war work, now."

"I'm so thrilled! In addition to my volunteer work, I have a war job with the Telephone Company.

"Operators are needed so badly here that Jane and Beth and I decided to pitch in and help. It's so interesting to put through important wartime calls. Makes us realize we're doing a real war job.

"The office is warm and comfortable, and within walking distance for some of us and easy on gas for others. I've made several nice new friends already."

The Telephone Company needs more operators in Birmingham AT ONCE! These jobs offer full or part time work that is clean, interesting, and essential to the war effort, with pay while learning.

WILL YOU ASSIST IN THIS ESSENTIAL WAR WORK? Miss Schroeder, chief operator, 148 Pierce (Birmingham 9901) will gladly give you complete information. Visit or call her today.
