

Ensign Robertson Home on 18-day Leave

Ensign William Travers Robertson, of the Coast Guard, who graduated from the officers' training school at New London, Conn., Sept. 1, is home on an 18-day leave. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robertson, of Webster street.

His sister, Mrs. Henry Mason, entertained for him last night at a family dinner. Mrs. Dominic N. Cavalieri will entertain for him tonight.

Ensign Travers was godfather to his three nephews at the Holy Name Church, Sunday. He will leave on Tuesday for his new post at San Francisco.

Shain Class Picnic Very Successful

An international relations picnic doesn't sound odd at all in Birmingham — Mrs. Charles Shain's International Relations class is such a part of the town.

The picnic, however, is something new for this class that specializes in the new, and it was very successful. It took place Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Hugh D. McLesse's country home, the picnicers carrying on their intellectual pursuits along with the sandwiches and salad — with a resume of "Under Cover," by John Roy Carlson, and a review of Walter Lippmann's "American Foreign Policy." Mrs. Shain also conducted a quiz on "names in the news."

Eleanor Moe Weds Lt. (j.g.) Johnson In Detroit Rites

The Church of the Messiah, Detroit, was the scene of the wedding of Eleanor Moe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moe, of the Alden Park Manor, and Lt. (j.g.) Fred L. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson, of Adams road, which took place last Saturday at 11 a. m.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white marquisette trimmed with alexandrite lace. Her long net veil fell from a heart shaped cap trimmed with pearls. White gladioli and stephanotis made up the bridal bouquet.

Engaged Student Victory Gardeners to Have Produce Judged

The victory garden project in which Birmingham students participated with a Harvest Festival Exhibit, to be held in the Community House, Friday, Sept. 17, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Committee members will be at the Community House to receive and classify entries, Thursday, Sept. 16, 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and Friday, Sept. 17, 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Students, parents and all members of the community who are interested in the work of the young gardeners, are invited to attend. This is a victory project, and there will be no admission charge.

This activity was sponsored by the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club in cooperation with the Birmingham Public Schools.

Student participants include members from the public, parochial and private schools.

The following rules and regulations will govern exhibitions. Exhibits will be entered in one of four classes:

- Class I—Grades 1-3.
- Class II—Grades 4-6.
- Class III—Friday High.
- Class IV—Senior High.

These classes will be determined by the individual grade level in the school year of 1942-43.

It is desired that each school group enter exhibits by groups as determined in the above classifications.

A vegetable and flower exhibit may be entered. A reserved produce may be entered in the exhibit if done wholly or under supervision by the exhibitor.

(B) Grades 1 to 6 may exhibit produce which has been canned by someone else provided it was grown by the individual displaying it.

(C) Individual exhibits of vegetables should include at least six of the smaller kinds, such as potatoes, tomatoes, carrots, and beets. Larger vegetables may be displayed singly.

(D) Individuals may display flowers either singly or in groups in arrangements. Arrangements will be judged for quality of material, suitability, container, balance, rhythm, and color.

(E) A collection of individual records may be entered. A record pertaining to the exhibit, including planting, amount harvested, use to which it has been put.

(F) Any individual may use the family garden as a basis for his record, providing there be included at the beginning a statement of what part he has taken in the work.

(G) These records will be judged on ingenuity, neatness, completeness, information given, general helpfulness to oneself and others.

(H) Ribbons will be awarded both to groups and to individuals. Recognition will be given for noteworthy effort whatever the type of exhibit.

(I) GEESSE—U. S. fighting word describing bombers in formation. Your purchase of an extra $100.00 War Bond in September will help keep these bombers in formation.

Hascall-MacAdam Wedding Ceremony Read at Home

At an afternoon ceremony read in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hascall, of Oakland avenue, on Saturday, Elizabeth Joyce Hascall spoke her marriage vows to the bridegroom, MacAdam, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hastings MacAdam, of Northlawn street. The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated at the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of white tulle with fitted bodice and bracelet length sleeves. Her dress was formed with tiny folds of the material. She wore a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and gardenias.

Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, the bride's mother-in-law, was her only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of aqua crepe with very soft lined lines, and carried a bouquet of fuchsia gladioli.

The bride's brother, Forbes S. Hascall, was the bridegroom's best man.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. White gladioli and tall white candelabra were used for decorations.

The couple left for Davenport, Iowa, where David is a Chief Specialist in the V-12 program.

Elizabeth was dressed in a brown suit with brown accessories. She wore an aqua blouse with her suit.

Out-of-town guests, Mrs. Benjamin Frazer, East Orange, N. J., who is the bridegroom's aunt, and Mrs. Bert C. Preston, of Armada, Mich., were present at the ceremony.
