an employee of the city. A hero of World War I, Drumheller, with the motor mechanics division of the army, stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, wrote to Mrs. Phillips.

My Dear Mrs. Phillips:

I am happy to inform you that your son, Technical Sergeant Gordon E. Drumheller, Judith Rossenberry, is with the motor mechanics division of the army, stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

He has been awarded the Air Medal in the name of the President of the United States for meritorious achievement in his service. This award is a tangible expression of the gratitude of our Government for his contributions to the success of our cause in the war against the common enemy.

I am a Comptroller of the Thirteenth Air Force, and the officers and men associated with him are proud of the work Drumheller's accomplished. We all share the emotion that it is his mother must experience similarly gratifying news.

It is my hope that your son has learned to serve honorably his organization, his family and his country.

I extend to you the most sincere congratulations and the best wishes for the Thirteenth Air Force.

Very truly yours,

G. L. USHER,
Brigadier General, U.S.A.,
Diving Commander.

PROMOTED TO MAJOR

and jawbones of the Community House.

Plans already under way for the coming year, cancerizing projects affecting not only those who are sickly members of our community, but also those who are women in the service, have made it necessary to increase the annual objective of public contributions to $15,000 during 1944.

Will Rebuild Goal

This goal will be reached—if you and all other loyal friends and supporters of the Community House club will increase general contributions. Our goal for this increase would not have to be large, but due to the fact that so many of our former supporters are in the armed forces, we believe in 1943 will have to average 25% more if the Community House is to realize its hopes this year.

But we have faith in the men and women of Birmingham. We are confident they will rise to the occasion and in order to help us in our campaign, we are asking you to contribute.

The one thing that we can be kept strength through these trying and troublous times. We know that our friends will respond.

May we ask an especial favor?

Last year, in order to "cheer up" spring and the time of solicitors, we asked our friends to send in their collection. The result was most gratifying. Not only were over 50 per cent of the pledges received, but many who had almost invariably turned down our previous amount of their pledges.

Thoughtful people are usually like that.

So for your convenience we are enclosing an envelope. Please mail it to the address of the person who is usually also active in war, church or other similar work. And please let your pledge be as large as possible.
