Patroness List For Garden Club Bridge Benefit Is Growing

Arrangements for the benefit bridge given by the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association on Monday, May 8, are going rapidly forward. Unusual interest has been evidenced by members and friends and the list of patronesses lengthens daily.

Included among these are Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. Cassius Miller, Mrs. Robert Ball, Mrs. A. W. Wood, Mrs. E. J. O'Connell, Mrs. Ewald Schaeffer, Mrs. Harold R. Chappel, Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, Mrs. E. J. Hill, Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Mrs. Elmore Wolterize, Mrs. Victor Spike, Mrs. Harry Hamilton, Mrs. Wm. B. Plate, Mrs. W. E. Yostler, Mrs. T. A. Hinchshaw, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. Robert Lynd, Mrs. Louis Dibble, Mrs. Benj. Brewster, Mrs. A. H. Knorr, Mrs. Wm. Howe, Mrs. Bertram Brandt, Mrs. H. Gray Murray, and Mrs. Benjamin A. Anibal.

Mrs. Eli Alexander, chairman of the ticket committee, has as her assistants Mrs. B. M. McEacham, Mrs. Donald Price, Mrs. Bronson Brandt and Mrs. Henry Beam.

There will be prizes for each table, and the planning and executing of this large order has been assigned to Mrs. Ralph Hickenbaugh.

To Mrs. Berwood B. Gamble has been given the task of supplying refreshments for a capacity crowd. This will be handled in a novel manner, and Mrs. J. Vinton Birch, Mrs. Lloyd S. Lipton, Mrs. Hiram P. Holmes, Mrs. Murray S. Rice, Mrs. A. J. Scriven and Mrs. Harry C. Corbett are helping to get all ready.

"Plan to play on the eighth of May" to help raise funds for many outstanding local and national philanthropies.

25th Anniversary Is Celebrated By The E. O. Kurths

Mr. and Mrs. Erich O. Kurth, of 3642 Crestwood avenue, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at the American Legion Home on the University of Michigan campus. They were married at St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran church of Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurth were assisted in the receiving line by their three daughters, Anita, Marguerite and Gertrude. Mrs. Kurth received her guests in a silver gray evening dress trimmed in white lace and tulle, her corsage being rose buds and violets. The bride wore a white evening dress with white lace with a skirt of navy blue net over a white foundation while Marguerite wore a light blue tulle evening dress and the younger daughter, Gertrude, a semi-military dress of white and blue flowered silk trimmed in white lace. Mrs. Kurth's mother's evening dress was black velvet.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Hitchcock, of Royal Oak, and Ernest Kurth, brother of the groom, who was best man at his brother's wedding, also were present.

The hall was beautifully decorated in spring flowers; the center dining table was covered with a white cloth which also decorated Mrs. Kurth's mother's wedding table.

The three-tier wedding cake which rose to a height of 22 inches was in silver and white rose buds and tiny birds with silver bells hanging from the center of an arch. The cake was made by August Larsen, a friend of the family. Candles in silver holders stood at each end of the table.

The gifts, which were many, were on display on a table at one side of the huge hall. One gift in particular brought forth many comments, a beautiful silver tray which has been handed down for three generations. It was presented to the couple by Mrs. Kurth's mother and the three daughters, and contained sixty silver dollars.

The evening was spent in dancing and singing.

There were over 80 guests present from Tawas City, Mount Clemens, Royal Oak, Farmdale, Flint, Trenton, Howell, Pontiac, Detroit, Highland Park and Birmingham.

Mrs. Kurth's brother Paul, now in the armed forces of the U. S. A., could not be present, but a telegram of congratulations from him arrived shortly after the guests arrived. Of Mr. Kurth's 11 sisters and brothers, seven sisters and one brother were able to attend the festivities.

Wedding Invitations and Announcements

To Be Socially Correct

GENUINE Engraving lends a personal smartness to calling cards, wedding invitations and announcements. Socially correct too, in fact the accepted social graces demand it. For there is no substitute which can convey the character, the charm, the quiet elegance of the genuine.

This holds true for informal cards which are in such demand at present.

For all serious demands the service of a skilled engraver, we are happy to serve you and at prices that are within the reach of everyone.
