

Cranbrook School Play Will Be Given On April 28 and 29

Kenneth Wood, stage designer for Cranbrook and the producer of its elaborate set for "Idiot's Delight" has at seven had professional experience. Wood was associated with Robert A. Wade at the Emerson Playhouse in Boston during the summer of 1943, and has applied his production knowledge to the performance to be given April 28 and 29 under the direction of Carl G. Wondolinger. Other specialists to be seen in "Idiot's Delight" are dancers Noel Baker and Marilyn Speer who will dance to an original musical score written and arranged by the director. Paul Meadows of the Cranbrook faculty will sing a portion of the score and Jane Stanley will provide a musical background to the dancing.

Choir Concert Highlights Busy Musical Season

The Baldwin a cappella choir concert will be presented tonight in Baldwin auditorium. The choir is under the direction of Victor Ulrich, instructor in vocal music in Birmingham Junior and senior high schools.

Several recent appearances of the choir before Birmingham audiences have won much favorable comment. One of these was the brief concert given for the Women's Club Tuesday, in which some of the choir members took part. The program consisted of the following numbers: "The Forget-Me-Not" by Woodman; "From The Land of the Sky" by Gadsom; "Green Champagne, so pure"; "Finlandia" by Sibelius; "Wedding Day" by Palmgren; "Mary Jane Stephens' prayer"; "One Kiss" from "New Moon" by Romberg; "Joan Pascher, soprano"; "Arabesque" by Debussy; "Sigelinde Saaskojas, piano"; "Another recent program presented by the choir was given Wednesday, April 15, at the following songs were sung: "Homing" by Delreco; "Ira's Castle" by Aschenbrenner; "British Children's Prayer" by Wolfe; "The Sleigh" by Counts. The choir concert will begin at 8:15 p. m. tonight.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By ANN NONJOMUS Hi, Kids! Guess maybe someone has a heart after all, anyway no one can deny that that someone was in a good mood when we were greeted early from school last Friday.

Consequently there was a good turnout at the track meet and baseball game. The scene of the kick was deep in mud. Annie saw fans Bob Hart, Bill Crooks, Wilmar Hoak, Alvin Larsen, Weldon MacDonald, Wally Roy, Charles Matthews, Ben Lewis, Jack Oswald, Kachi Kiri, Janet Walsley, Harry Beck, Meyer, and Dorothy Adams, plus many others having loads of fun. Servemen come and service men, and that's just what Jack Steedman did, but before leaving he had a date with one Della Friday night, a double with Nan MacQueen and Pete Gahn, and they talked over old times.

Gini Bostwick was a surprised but happy little lady last Thursday when Howie Brittmeier and his troupe in Colorado. Intent upon food, Mary Mead, Jim Gilchrist, Mary Jane Bell, and Max Charlton were seen Friday night anxiously looking for a place to eat. Thinking up "A Lovely Way to Spend An Evening" Stan Crin and Andy Burlingame, and Bill Bones had their favorite dates Rudi Forster, Jennie Helgeson, and Marty Fox, respectively, for a wonderful time. And Anderson, Melvin Boomer, Floyd Moore, and Dick Dugan went to Detroit for their entertainment.

Before Al Alf went back to school, he and Ann Halladay went to Detroit Saturday night to take in "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Other Detroit lovers, Di Roosevelt and Ray McConkie saw "The Sign of the Cross" and Dick Dugan went to Detroit for their entertainment. Stayed in good old Birmingham, Sybil Fleish, John Gilbert, Kay Brumbaum, and Bob Gow saw "Giel Grazy". Martha Bostwick, Ted Mansfield, Franne Mead, Diana Elcar, Dottie Scott, and Pete Good went to McKenzie high school to see "Arsenic and Old Lace". Till out next, ANNIE.

Twelfth Graders In Study of Banking

For the purpose of studying banking systems, the twelfth grade economics classes at Baldwin visited two Birmingham banks this week. The second group class visited the Birmingham National Bank April 21, and the fourth hour class studied the procedures at the Wallace State Bank April 22.

Betty Lou Thurman and Ella Clark made arrangements for the field trip. Mr. Moore was the instructor acting as adviser to the groups.

FOR SCHOOL DANCE The popular trampoline act from Ferrisville will be the feature attraction in the floor show night at Baldwin high school. This act was featured in the pictorial section of the Detroit News and was seen by the Detroit News and Mrs. Carol Darling from Coach Henley of Lincoln high school in Ferrisville. This act has visited many other schools and has been a success wherever it has gone. Some acrobatic dancers from the same school will perform.

Sports Assembly Considered One of Outstanding Events of School Year

By JEAN EDDY

One of the outstanding assemblies of the year at Baldwin high school was the sports assembly held Friday, April 21, in the gymnasium. Presenting several noted sportsmen, the assembly was received with great enthusiasm and appreciation by the students. The program opened with a publicity skit for the annual Basketball dance, "McGuffey's Tavern," to be given tomorrow night at the school. The scene of the skit was laid in an imitation tavern. Participants were Karl Zint, Wanda Garrison, Wally Roy, Carter George, Rette Good, Louise Cunningham, Weldon MacDonald, Chick Coley, and Ted Mansfield.

The first sports event on the program was a demonstration of Coach Lloyd Cooper's original game, ether-tennis. The players were Dave Wangers, Bob Goldsmith, Dale Moore, and Mary Groverner. In a game of singles Bob Goldman won, while Dave Wangers and Mary Groverner won the doubles. Champion fly and ball casters from Sidney, Ohio, the 17-year-old Creisy twins, put on a skillful demonstration of casting.

The Maple team is defeated twice Putting over two runs in the last half of the sixth inning, the Royal Oak baseball team managed to edge out the Birmingham nine 9-2 Monday afternoon. Berchie and handed the Maples their second defeat in as many starts this season. Jim Watt, junior hurler, started for the locals and held the Acorns in hand until the seventh. Bud Keller led the Maples in hitting with a single and a double in three times but did not connect in two runs with his two-bagger. Jim Watt held the Acorns to three runs in the seventh. Berchie led five for the offerings of Wheeler and Krause.

The game was notable for the Maples' lack of ability to hit with men on bases. The Maples left 16 men on bases in seven innings and there was not an inning in which there were not at least two men left. The Mt. Clemens team, on the other hand, made the best use of its opportunities. The Bathers made nine runs on five hits and three errors and base on balls given by the Maples figured in the scoring. The Maples were able to make only six runs on nine hits.
