

Mrs. Rose E. Downer Wives She and Her Family Keeping Busy

Mrs. Rose Downer, for many years a resident of Franklin writes from 15224 Ward avenue, Detroit, that they have sold their Franklons to Kenneth C. Avery.

She is busy there, having engaged a major art student at the University, specializing in drawing and still program, doing practicing teaching at the school in Highland Park and the Sophie Wright school on the East side in Detroit.

Dorothy Downer, she says, is now a nurse cadet at Harper hospital and Dean Downer is attending Howe Military School, Howe, Indiana, and this summer is working on a farm emergency program near school. He plans to take up aviation.

"We are carrying on to the best of our ability," she writes. "We enjoy the excitement and the change from our old home town and vicinity."

Carol Moore Weds Pfc. Jack Marshall

Carol E. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Moore, of Crooks road, became the bride of Pfc. Jack Marshall, son of the George Marshalls, of Royal Oak, Friday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Small in the Methodist church of Big Beaver.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Leonard Fandale, the former Vera Peterson, who was matron of honor, and Marvin Moore, best man. Following the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the young couple left on a brief honeymoon to Northern Michigan. Pfc. Marshall is stationed at Camp Howe, Texas, with the signal corps. He will return there following the honeymoon and his bride will make her home with her parents.

Michigan Gladiolus Society Holds Annual Exhibition Aug. 19-20

The 13th Annual Exhibition of the Southeastern Michigan Gladiolus Society will be held this coming Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 19 and 20, at the Chrysler Detroit Showroom, 5625 Woodward.

Due to the ever-increasing membership of the society this year's exhibit is expected to be the largest and most interesting they have ever staged.

All gladiolus growers are invited to participate. Mrs. A. P. Almyer, secretary in horticultural circles, will lecture each afternoon of the show on flower arrangements as particularly applied to gladiolus. There will be an educational booth where guests will learn all phases of gladiolus culture.

Everyone is cordially invited to the show at Chrysler Detroit Showroom between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 19 and 20. Enjoy this colorful exhibition of the Southeastern Michigan Gladiolus Society.

Birmingham Women Are Preparing Canned Fruits and Vegetables for South Oakland Victory Harvest and Flower Show Sept. 9, 10

Victory Garden growers in all parts of Birmingham are reported entirely to Juniors, not over 17 years of age. They will have a complete exhibit of their own: Class I to be vegetables, class II canned and class III flowers.

The 4-H Club members will have a special exhibit in the Junior Section which will contain canned goods.

The schedules are now available to any who may be interested in exhibiting at the show. One may get them from the desk in the Municipal Building or Baldwin library.

The professional gardeners are also invited to exhibit in this show. They will be in a group by themselves and will be judged by a separate group of judges. Those wishing schedules may obtain them by calling Miss DeWaal at Lincoln 2-2774 from the Bloomfield and District Horticultural Society.

Birmingham Group In Charge of U.S.O. For An Evening

The pastor, Dr. Melvina W. Czynski, and a group of the members of the First Baptist Church, Willis and Bates streets, were in charge of the evening of the Metropolitan U.S.O., 401 W. Lafayette street, Detroit, on Sunday evening, Aug. 13, 1944, from 7 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. They had the pleasure of serving hot dogs, sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee and cranberry sauce to more than 1,000 service men and women.

The Women's Union of the church contributed $45.00 toward the cost of providing the refreshments free to those in the service.

The U.S.O. center is one of which the people in this area may well be proud. An army officer made the remark that he had traveled from Maine to California and had been in many U.S.O. centers and considered the one in Detroit among the best.

Mrs. John I. Burnett acted as chairman. The others who attended were Dr. and Mrs. Melvina W. Czynski, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kuylen, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Davidson, Mrs. Edward Minko, Mrs. A. D. Edmund, Mrs. Robert Hopkins, Mrs. Frank Goldburg, Mrs. Edward Schipell, and Mrs. Norman Moyse.

Young Set to Gather At Forester's Barn For Country Fair

Forester's barn at the Henry Forester home in Birmingham has been the scene of great festivity Saturday night, centering around the Country Fair and barn dance that the Beta Beta Gamma are sponsoring out there that evening.

Puddey Colter, who is general chairman, and her committee have done a fine job of making arrangements. Among the attractions are the colorful booths, ordering hot dogs, lemonade, soft drinks and other goodies to tempt the crowd. Yes, there'll be a big time in the old barn Saturday night.

Assisting Puddey are Mary Kay Smith, Barbara Parker, Mary Quinn, Velma Kewer, Jane Stegwey, Norma Swisher, Kay Brumbein, Polly Saunders, Margaret McDonald, Glenn Halgerson, Charlotte Hill and "Bip" Van Winkle.

Grating chocolate is not needed in unnecessary and wasteful. If chocolate will be melted separately from other ingredients, as in making chocolate cake, break in small pieces and melt in a small smooth-sided container easy to scrape and clean.
